THE Lafayette Dispatch of the 23d says: "One of the most horrible murders ever known was committed yesterday afternoon, in the usually quiet town of Hamilton, in Clinton county. A man named Moses Davis was some years ago married to a widow named Emmons, who, at the time of her marriage to Davis, was the mother of several children. Davis' conduct to the children was sometimes unbearable, and at other times he seemed very kind to them, but for the last few years he has entertained the bitterest feeling towards them, and especially has he time and again threatened the life of one of the sons, Frank Emmons. On yesterday Davis was sitting calmly conversing with some friends, when he suddenly exclaimed he was going to kill Frank Emmons, and left them. He went to the house of Edward Miller, the husband of one of his step-daughters, and found Emmons. He at once drew a butcher knife and struck at Emmons with it, inflicting a serious wound between the collar bone and neck joint. Emmons staggered out with Davis following him, attempting another blow, which he inflicted, stabbing his victim about the second rib. Emmons fell and expired in about ten minutes. After inflicting the second wound on Emmons, Davis made for Mrs. Miller, swearing he was going "to exterminate the whole family." Mr. Miller at once interfered, and succeeded in taking the knife from him, Davis all the time swearing he was going to kill the whole family before he quit. He was arrested, and a large number of the citizens of Hamilton were present, and not a few suggested the propriety of settling the case at once, in Judge Lynch's court. A gentleman relates that, some weeks ago, Davis pointed to a deep pond, and said: "I am going to drown myself there. I am going to kill my wife, and all her children, and then drown myself. The prisoner was arrested, taken to Frankfort, and closely guarded.

FIRST EDITION.

MIDNIGHT.

THE FENIANS.

The Situation after the Ambush at the Border.

[Ty Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 26.—A St. Albans special says: After the advance guard, under O'Neill, had received several volleys from the ambushed British, a portion fell back, and the remainder, under Adjutant General Donnelly, entrenched in a wood shed near Cook's Corner. There was no communication with them yesterday afternoon, and the prospects of escape were doubtful. They were subject to a sharp enfilading fire from the enemy, and all attempts at retreat were hopeless. They hoped they would be able to escape under cover of the darkness. Just after the repulse, O'Neill with two hundred recruits arrived and gave a fresh impulse to the disheartened Fenians. But in consequence of the want of leaders no forward movement was made. Several attempts to reinforce Donnelly and effect the release of his command proved futile. The men are not at all disheartened and no desertions have taken place; on the contrary, every train brings large accessions. No doubt there will be more fighting to-day, and though the Fenians may gain a temporary advantage, it will be unavailing, as efforts at a successful raid are abortive. Several companies of United States regular infantry and artillery have arrived and are encamped near the border.

Demonstrations from Other Quarters.

The Times' dispatch from Ogdensburg states that the united column, numbering 1,000, is moving into Canada on the right bank of the St. Lawrence, and will probably strike Canada near Huntingdon, and seize the Beauharnois Canal. A suspected formidable movement is organizing to attack Montreal, and the end is not yet. The railroad is torn up, the telegraph destroyed, &c.

MALONEY, May 26.—Four regiments of Fenians crossed the Trout river line this morning, and are now marching. Lieutenant Colonel O'Leary is in command. Colonels Smith, McWade, Thompson and Campbell are regimental commanders.

The Situation at St. Albans—Council of War.

ST. ALBANS, May 26—The Fenian bubble, as far as the movement in this direction is concerned, has bust. Soon after the arrest of General O'Neill, the Fenian officers held a long council of war and decided that it was useless for them, with the small number of men under their command, to make any further attempt at invading Canadian soil. As a consequence the roads from here to Franklin are lined with returning Fenians.

Movements in the Northwest.

CHICAGO, May 26.—The Fenians have crowded their headquarters all morning, and are much excited. Forty Fenians left two hours since, some for the East and quite a number for Minnesota. A number of Irish organizations have also left, but precisely in what direction is not known.

A Canadian Spy Discovered.

During the Fenian meeting last night a Canadian spy was discovered in the audience, and a savage rush was made for him. He bounded down the stairs, the Fenians roaring, rushing and trampling each other behind him, but the fellow escaped without injury.

O'Neill's Arrest Not Deplored.

The news of the capture of General O'Neill will not check the operations nor diminish the ardor of the Chicago Fenians. The misfortune they regard as part of the luck of war, but they have every confidence in the ability of the other Generals who are at the front to take and fill O'Neill's place as well, if not better. Therefore, contributions will be solicited to-day, and men will be provided as fast as possible. A large sum of money was poured into the treasury yesterday, and was as rapidly expended for transporting purposes, and to-day it is expected that many of the more wealthy Irishmen of the city will hand in checks for large amounts. Records are kept of every dollar collected, and the name of every contributor is kept for future reference if necessary.

Indians Join the Fenians.

George Francis Train arrived from Minnesota this morning. He reports that a tribe of Chippewa Indians have joined the Fenians at Winnipeg. They are under command of a chief who a few weeks since was converted by a Catholic Priest. Train made a speech at the Fenian headquarters and contributed fifty dollars to aid the cause. He will speak again to-night.

What is Thought at Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Much interest is felt here regarding the Fenian movement, which meets with general reprobation. There is no doubt but what the Administration will do all in its power to check them and maintain the neutrality laws.

Dispatches were received at the State Department from United States Marshals along the Canadian border giving details of the gathering of large bodies of men along the line, but the objective point or intentions are not stated. Secretary Fish sent the dispatches to the President. The Secretary believes the Fenians mean mischief, and admits they certainly conducted affairs ably. Gen. Sherman has ordered Generals McDowell and Cooke, commanding the border departments, to lend all the assistance necessary to the Marshals in preventing an armed invasion of Canada. Sherman says we cannot prevent unarmed men from entering Canada unless it is proven that they are bent upon mischief. The United States steamer Michigan, on the lakes, was ordered to render the Marshals all the necessary assistance. General Banks, Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, believes the Fenian movement is a big scare, and emphatically declares that he does not believe that the Fenians are going to attempt the capture of Canada and fight Great Britain without the assistance of this Government. He trusts and hopes that if they make the attempt they will succeed, and believes as soon as we obtain a foothold in the Antilles, Great Britain will withdraw entirely from this continent.

Scene at Franklin, the Point Selected for Crossing the Line.

ST. ALBANS, May 26.—A gentleman just from Franklin brings the information that there is not now a Fenian in the whole place; that guns, ammunition, blankets, &c., are scattered about in great abundance. The rank and file complain bitterly of the officers, and say they do not understand their business.

It is evident the point chosen for crossing the line was a most unfortunate one. An aid of Gen. O'Neill says a thousand men could not have driven the Canadians from their position, which was naturally very strong, and the Fenians for the most part behaved badly and became sadly demoralized at the first volley of the Canadian musketry.

Three Fenians are this morning reported killed and ten or fifteen wounded. Gen. Donnelly, in attempting to escape from the Richards' House, was wounded in the leg, but not seriously. O'Neill is now in jail at Burlington. Gen. Spear is here at the Weldon house.

Excitement at Chicago—George Francis Train Turns Up and Blows his Trumpet.

CHICAGO, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day. They very generally disbelieved the reported capture of O'Neill until it was confirmed by subsequent dispatches.

The headquarters have been crowded all day. George Francis Train appeared there about noon, made one of his characteristic speeches and gave the Fenians fifty dollars. This evening he lectured for them, giving the proceeds of the lecture for the benefit of the cause.

Quite a number of Fenians have left for the seat of war during the day.

A Virtual Collapse---Doubtful Story.

TORONTO, May 26.—The Fenian movement is looked upon as virtually collapsed. Straggling parties may give a little trouble, but preparations are so complete that entire defeat will attend any further attempts at invasion.

The story of the Indians having attacked the troops at Sault St. Marie cannot be traced to any reliable source, and the latest advices say nothing of it. On the Niagara and Detroit frontiers there is sufficient force in readiness to repel any attempt to enter the country.

Excitement at New York Intense—Demoralizing Reports Denied.

NEW YORK, May 26—The Fenian excitement here continues intense. The leaders profess to have dispatches from the frontier denying reports of demoralization on the part of the men, and speaking hopefully of a prospective battle. The Franklin movement is characterized as a feint to draw the attention of the Canadians from other points.

General Gleason telegraphs from Watertown, N. Y., "All right. Men going forward, and we expect a fight."

Pigeon Hill Another Mission Ridge.

TORONTO, May 26.—From the best information received, the Fenian raid, as far as Pigeon Hill is concerned, is looked upon as a miserable failure. The Fenians are now retreating, leaving their arms, baggage and wounded behind them. There was no loss of life on the Canadian side.

Huntington is now the principal point of interest, where every necessary preparation has been made.

Seven Thousand Men at Malone.

The afternoon train from New York on the Hudson River Road is said to have carried fourteen hundred men under Col. McMahon, an ex-Confederate officer, while Col. Gayner intends leaving to-night with one thousand men. The Fenians say there are now seven thousand men at Malone preparing to move in a westerly direction.

O'Neill Denounced as a Coward.

Many Irishmen denounce what they call the cowardice of O'Neill in allowing himself to be made a prisoner, but it is not believed his capture will affect the movement.

Two detatchments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

Ridiculous, if True.

OTTAWA, May 26.—It is rumored the Government has received notice from the British Government that Minister Thornton has been directed by the Secretary of Foreign Affairs to demand the protection of the Canadian frontier by President Grant.

Disappearance of Arms.

PORTLAND, ME., May 26.—Some Fenian arms which had been turned back yesterday to the Eastern Express Company have been delivered to the original shippers and vanished.

Excitement and Activity at Ogdensburg.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A special to the Times from Ogdensburg says: The Fenian excitement is increasing. The Irish farmers have been hauling material for the last three nights. Eighty-five teamsters accompanied the column which crossed the line this morning. Huntington was occupied by the Fenians this morning.

Ten Thousand Fenians at Malone—The Line Crossed.

A World special from Malone reports the arrival of 10,000 Fenians from the east and west. Generals Starr and Gleason had arrived and proceeded immediately to the front of the river to assume command. The Fenians crossed the line this morning and encamped in a grove one mile beyond. They are armed with improved needle guns.

Latest from St. Albans.

ST. ALBANS, May 26.—During the day squads of Fenians, tired and discouraged, have been arriving here from the Franklin line. Returned Fenians have been loitering about the streets, and notwithstaning hunger and disappointment, have been quite orderly and civil.

General Spear has been in consultation with the officers, urging them to go to Malone with the men, but the men are not generally inclined and declare they have seen and experienced quite enough of this sort of war upon her Majesty's dominions.

Companies I, E and L 5th United States Artillery, numbering seventy-five men, under command of Lieut. Col. Kersel, have arrived from Boston.

The Canadian troops in the engagement yesterday were in command of Capt. Westover. They were an independent company of militia, and did not number over seventy men. They were shortly reenforced, but now there are few, if any, at the scene of the engagement.

Rowe, one of the Fenians killed, was buried by the Canadians. After the burial large stones were placed at the head and foot of the grave, and a pile of stones on top.

It is reported General Donnelly is badly wounded, and fears are entertained he cannot live.

Fenians Across the Border—Rumored Defeat of the Regulars.

The telegraph operator at Hershing Brook says the Fenians had crossed the border there, and a fight was expected. He closed his office with the words: "Fenians only a few rods off."

A gentleman in Ogdensburg, from Canada, says there is a fearful depression in all circles, and rumors of the defeat of the Regulars are rife.

The Sixtieth Rifles are moving to Huntington by forced marches. Straggling parties of Fenians can be met on the road from Trout river to Malone. Two Fenians were wounded to-day in attempting to pass the guard.

United States troops are expected to-night. There is no movement of Canadian troops towards the line. Residents at Trout river are moving their goods and families to Malone. An engagement will doubtless soon take place. The Fenians are orderly and on excellent terms with the residents along the line, although considerable apprehension is felt.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25, 1870.

Wednesday next was assigned for the business of the Committee on Banking and Currency.

The bill to revive the navigation and commercial interests of the United States was taken up.

Messrs. Farnsworth, Logan, Ingersoll and Garfield spoke against the bill.

Mr. LYNCH then introduced a substitute agreed upon by the Committee, which leaves the preamble as now, and simply allows a drawback upon materials imported for use in the construction of vessels of not less than one thousand tons, and that ship stores and coal may be taken and consumed free of duty.

The bill went over until to-morrow.

Mr. WASHBURN, Wis., from select committee on postal telegraphs, offered to waive the right of that committee to be called as next on the list if unanimous consent were given to report at any time, with the understanding that action would not be asked at this session. That suggestion was agreed to.

Mr. WHEELER reported, without amendment, the Senate Northern Pacific Railroad joint resolution.

The debate then proceeded upon the amendments offered previous to the recommittal of the bill, members explaining their propositions.

New amendments were also offered and advocated.

Mr. GARFIELD, from Committee on Rules, reported a resolution declaring the speech on the recognition of Cuba inserted in the Daily Globe of February 20, 1870, under leave to print given to Mr. Mungen, contains remarks of a personal character, prohibited by the rules of the House and not proper to be inserted in the Congressional Globe, and instructing the proprietors of the Globe to exclude it.

The Speaker suggested that as Mr. Mungen was not in his seat, the resolution be withdrawn for the present. It was so done.

Mr. SAWYER, from Committee on Commerce, reported the river and harbor bill. Referred to Committee on Approp'ns. It makes appropriations to the amount of nearly $3,500,000. GREAT BRITAIN.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LONDON, May 26.—The Times says that while President Grant's proclamation itself is satisfactory, the absence of American troops on the border to carry out its provisions is deplorable. "This, however," the Times continues, "is not surprising, as troops are not usually quartered on a friendly frontier. Troops should be sent to Canada immediately, and Canada should forward to the front all the soldiers she can spare. Canada must have no tenderness for this second offence. The marauders must be treated as robbers, ruffians and murderers."

This morning's Telegraph says President Grant has acted with loyalty and honor.

The Pall Mall Gazette admits the promptitude with which the American Government has acted on the Canadian frontier and seeks to dissipate the fears of those who expect the worst results from the Fenian invasion.

In the Commons Mr. Monsell said the Colonial Department had received telegraphic dispatches from the Governor General of Canada announcing that the Fenians crossed the line near Phillipsburg, and other points on the frontier, and that trouble was threatened at various places along the border, but he was happy to say the government had further information that the President of the United States had issued a proclamation of warning, and General Meade had despatched troops to the frontier to prevent the violation of neutrality.

PARIS, May 26.—In the Corps Legislatif, to-morrow, an interpellation will be submitted to the Government on the cause of the dissolution of the Plebiscitary Committee. It is announced that on this occasion the Left will declare itself a constitutional party, and signify its willingness to accept power under the Empire, if it is permitted to carry out its programme. M. Picard is the leader in the movement, and will be chief of the party, which is to be called Constitutional Left.

The Episcopal Convention and the Common Schools—New Railroad Project—A Duel, Almost—Knight Templars' Encampment.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, May 26.—At the session of the Episcopal Convention the Committee on Christian Education submitted the following report, which one member asserted aimed a blow at the public school system, and moved to recommit it for alteration. A very sharp discussion ensued, which was participated in by a large number of members, some of them taking strong grounds against the present system of public education. One of them said he did not approve of the system at all. Another didn't believe the clergy should be muzzled by public opinion, and wished the report adopted, without regard to consciences. Motions to indefinitely postpone the consideration of the report, and to postpone until to-morrow were warmly discussed, and defeated. Finally, after a heated debate, the motion to recommit prevailed, and the Convention proceeded to routine business.

The Board of Directors of the Missouri Pacific Railroad determined to-day to build a road from Pleasant Hill, Mo., to Lawrence, Kansas, which will materially shorten and straighten the route from here to Denver and give the Missouri Pacific Company facilities for business in Kansas South of the Kaw river superior to any other route. The Directors also appointed a committee to negotiate with the Missouri River and Leavenworth, Atcheson and Northwestern Railroad Company for the modification of existing leases with those roads, and gave the committee full power to commence proceedings to terminate leases, if their efforts at compromise were unsuccessful.

Col. David Murphy, editor of the Franklin Observer, and Judge Owens of Franklin County Circuit Court, met this morning for the purpose of fighting a duel, but while the preliminaries were being arranged an amicable settlement of the matter was effected. The affair grew out of the alleged illegal issue of bonds by the Franklin County Court and refusal of Judge Owens to grant injunctions against one of the parties concerned. Owens and Murphy are brothers-in-law and men of considerable prominence. Murphy is somewhat celebrated as the defender of Pilot Knob against the rebel General Price during the war.

Accompanied by prominent citizens, the entire party drove over the city and through the suburbs, drawing up about noon at the capitol building, where addresses were delivered by Mayor Millard, Dr. Miller, Alexander H. Rice and Ed. W. Kingsly. The train was visited by thousands during the day, and every possible attention paid to the guests. They left for the west at five o'clock in the afternoon. All were well.

First General Assembly of the Re-United Presbyterian Church.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—In the Presbyterian Assembly this morning, the consideration of the Reconstruction report was continued. The items providing that the ratio of representation to the Synod and Assembly should be altered so as to bring the members in the Assembly within due limits, and secure equal rights to all parts of the Church, was considered at great length.

The items reported by the Committee recommend no change in the Presbyterian representation be proposed at present, but only a change in the ratio and form of representation. This change would provide for one commissioner, minister or an elder, from each Presbytery having twenty members. The three items bearing upon this subject were so amended that only the Presbyterian representation is left unchanged, but no change is recommended in the ratio of representation. The whole matter is left as ordered by Chapter 12, Section 2 of the Form of Government. The three items were adopted as amended.

The question of appeals to the General Assembly was considered. The Committee recommended that all claimants and references terminate at the Synod, except in questions of constitutional law, or the trial of ministers for heresy. This item was adopted, with the addition of the words "except where the parties agree to trial by Commission."

Several unimportant items of the report were adopted without discussion.

The afternoon session of the Assembly was for the administration of the holy communion and other devotional exercises.

General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church South.

LOUISVILLE, May 26.—In the General Assembly this forenoon there was an animated discussion on the question of appointing lay exhorters. A petition had been received by the Assembly to prohibit appointments. The committee appointed on the question reported in favor of allowing lay exhorters, which report was adopted by the Assembly.

In the afternoon the Assembly accepted an invitation of the Louisville Bridge Company and took an excursion over the bridge, visiting New Albany and Jeffersonville, Indiana.

The proposal of the Northern Presbyterian Assembly for a Committee of Conference to consult respecting the settlement of differences that are in litigation is the theme of the greatest interest. The Committee on Foreign Correspondence were not prepared to report to-day, and their report is the order of the day for ten o'clock to-morrow.

The addresses of Dr. Vandyke and Mr. Dodge yesterday made a profound impression, and struck a tender chord in the breasts of a large number. There were a great many moist eyes, and the overture was cordially responded to in the feelings of many. Could the vote have been taken then, the fusion would have been settled affirmatively by an overwhelming majority; but a number of leaders, Dabney, Palmer, and others, are bitterly opposed to any response that may eventually lead to union, and are making earnest efforts to counteract the effect of the speeches of the Philadelphia delegation.

MICHIGAN.

Important Railroad Bond Case Decided—Millions of Dollars Involved—Probable Extra Session of the Legislature.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

DETROIT, May 26.—In the case of the Detroit and Howell Railroad vs. the town of Salem, in which the company prayed for a mandamus from the Supreme Court ordering the township Board to issue certain bonds, authorized to be issued, as was claimed, by a vote of the electors, the Court refused the motion for the writ. It was held that if the constitutionality of the law authorizing towns to render aid to railways in this way could be sustained at all, it must be under the authority of the State to prescribe and determine the objects to be provided for and fostered through the expenditures of the public money. That there are certain limitations upon this power. Taxation must be imposed for a public and not for a mere private purpose. The tax must be laid according to some rule of apportionment. If the tax is imposed upon one of the municipal subdivisions of the State only, the purpose must not only be a public purpose, but it must also be local, that is, the people of that municipality must have a peculiar interest in the object to be accomplished, which will make it just, proper and equitable that they should bear the burden rather than the State at large or any considerable portion of the State. It was held that railroads are not public objects; that the State cannot itself, under the constitution of Michigan, lay taxes for the aid of railway enterprise, nor can it authorize municipalities to do what it cannot do itself.

Judges Cooley, Campbell and Christiancy concurred in these views. Judge Graves dissented. This decision will prove a death blow to the numerous companies which have been organized under the general railroad law of the State. Some of the roads have been completed and township bonds delivered and others are in progress. It is estimated that $1,500,000 of these bonds are in the hands of bona fide holders, mostly eastern capitalists, and that $6,000,000 of bonds which have been voted are deposited with the State Treasurer but not yet delivered. It is expected that the Governor will call an extra session of the Legislature to submit an amendment to the constitution making these bonds valid.

CHICAGO.

Northwestern Woman's Suffrage Association—Projected Air Line Railroad to Pittsburgh.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, May 26.—The Northwestern Woman's Sugrage Association has been in session all day. During the morning session speeches were made by Giles B. Stebbens, of Detroit, Miss Rebecca Mott, of Chicago, Miss Anthony, Miss Peckham, Miss Ballou, Judge Waite and others. A constitution was presented and adopted, and the following officers elected under it: President, M. Adele Hazlett, Michigan; Vice Presidents, Robert J. Ingersoll, Illinois; Lizzie Boynton, Indiana; Mrs. Fairchild, Wisconsin; Mary J. Colborn, Minnesota; Henry O'Connor, Iowa; Giles B. Stebbins, Michigan; Phœbe Cozzens, of Missouri; Marion Cole, Ohio. Executive Committee: Colonel Fox, Judge Waite, George W. Julian, Lillie Peckham, Sarah B. Steers, and Miss A. J. Chapin; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Harriett Brooks; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. W. Loomis; Treasurer, Fernando Jones.

The following resolution was discussed at the afternoon session and adopted:

Resolved, That we are in favor of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States recognizing and declaring the right of women to exercise the elective franchise on equal terms with all other citizens.

J. W. Garrett, President of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, addressed the members of the Chicago Board of Trade to-day in regard to the construction of an air line railroad between this city and Pittsburgh, passing through Akron and Tiffin, Ohio. At Pittsburgh it will connect with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Mr. Garrett claims that the opening of this new route will bring Chicago over one hundred miles nearer to a seaport than at present, and with the aid of steamship lines from Baltimore to West Indies and European ports will give quicker and cheaper facilities for export than are now enjoyed.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC BILL PASSED.

In Norfolk it is estimated the Conservatives have carried the city by fifty majority.

ANTI-TEMPERANCE.

Meeting of Liquor Dealers and Brewers—Reporters Invited to Leave—Secret Conclave.

There was called yesterday at 2 P. M., at Saenger Hall, corner of Grant and Seventh streets, a meeting of "all those opposed to the injustice of refusing license to nine or ten townships and boroughs in the county."

At the appointed hour our reporter appeared at the designated place, finding there two representatives of other city papers, and other persons, not sufficient in number, however, to indicate to the casual observer that a public meeting was about to be held. After considerable delay the "audience" assembled in an upper room.

On motion, Mr. —— took the chair, and when all were seated, the reporters found they were exactly one-fifth of the number present. The call for the meeting bore the caption, "attention, liquor dealers and brewers;" but the calling of the even dozen was sufficiently indicated without this intimation—their ideas on the subject of temperance apparent without the more tangible evidence given by them.

Wistful, not to say fierce or angry, glances toward the reporters' table were soon explained in a motion by one of the twelve, his exact words being, "Mr. President, I move we don't want reporters here."

There was no "second," but the motion evidently found favor with some, and there seemed to be a weight of trouble about it.

The President announced they would proceed to business, directing the Secretary to read the minutes of the previous meeting.

This done, the President said "I move we do no more business here to-day," putting the question, and declaring the motion carried.

This was followed by knowing looks, and much whispering, but the move failed of effect, the reporters, in their stupidity, not taking the hint.

The President, who labored under the infirmity of indistinct utterance, after the lapse of some time reconsidered his motion (as our reporter understood him) to do no more business, and moved to proceed with the meeting. The question was put and the Chairman's motion carried unanimously.

At this point one Mr. Rahe moved that reporters be excluded from the meeting, giving his reasons for such motion. At their last meeting, when but one reporter was present, a great many things were reported that were not true. Now, there were three reporters attending, and the reports would be a great deal worse.

The Dispatch reporter, interrupting the speaker—Beg pardon, sir; will you please state what paper the reporter belonged to?

Mr. Rahe—The Commercial.

Mr. President—"You all hear the motion, that we don't have any reporters here."

Carried unanimously.

The reporters, stupid no longer, being thus told, not discourteously, nor yet politely, to depart, departed.

This meeting was called, we believe, in pursuance of a design to test the constitutionality of the law passed by the last Legislature prohibiting the license of taverns in certain districts in the county. There are many, even temperance advocates, who believe the law to be unconstitutional. The few individuals who met at Saenger Hall yesterday, we need scarcely say, did not represent the intelligence of the whisky interest. Any cause, no matter how righteous, would suffer in such hands.

BASE BALL.

Our Ballists Moving—The Chicago Club to be Invited—The Prospects for a Good Game.

The suggestion made in the GAZETTE a few days ago, that the Chicago club should be invited here during the season, has met with favor among the base ball fraternity. Measures have been taken to carry out the idea. The great difficulty was the fact that no local club existed hereabouts which was considered strong enough to make a good game with the famous "White Stockings." This is no discredit to our organizations, as none of them have been in practice for some time. A consultation was held yesterday afternoon among the most prominent players, when the matter was arranged by the selection of a picked nine, which comprises about the best material we can present in a base ball way. The chosen were formerly members of the Allegheny and Enterprise Clubs, when to be one of the nine in either was a guarantee of high rank as a player. They will take their old positions and be assigned as follows: Catcher, Wood McKnight, Enterprise; pitcher, W. Brosey, Allegheny; first base, J. T. Irwin, Enterprise; second base, Frank Rinehart, Allegheny; third base, H. Nichols, Allegheny; short stop, Dan Euwer, Enterprise; right field, J. C. Graham, Enterprise; centre, Al. Girty, Allegheny; left, Joe Euwer, Enterprise.

As will be seen, the list embraces the choice of the old clubs. They will go into training immediately. The Chicago Club have been invited, but have not answered. In all probability they will come however, and lovers of this sport will have an opportunity of witnessing another fine contest. If the "picked nine" play as well as on former occasions, the "White Stockings" will not carry away the victors' palm without displaying their abilities in a marked degree. The game will be looked to with great interest.

It is desirable that the General Division shall start from Ross street, at nine o'clock precisely, to join General Sweitzer's Division.

Committee of Arrangements—George W. Massey, Sr., Granville S. Woodson, B. K. Sampson, John Briscoe, Birmingham.

Chairman—Benj. F. Pulpress.

Secretary—S. A. Neale.

It is earnestly hoped that all places of business, barber shops, etc., will be closed on Monday, so as to give our loyal men an opportunity of testifying their regard for the departed soldiers of the late war.

A grand mass meeting will be held at Miller street school house, this (Friday) evening, to make further arrangements.

Correction.

EDITORS GAZETTE: We notice in your paper of the 24th a publication headed "Riot in Mansfield." Who ever it might be that wrote the same, we would say to him through your widely circulated columns, that before he writes any more Home News about our thriving and beautiful village of Mansfield, he had better gather at least some facts, as the combustible is false. Our policeman, M. B. Clark, arrested two men and took them before Justic Hill for drunkenness and disorderly conduct; both were fined and in default of payment commitments were placed in the hands of Officer Clark. But rather than go to jail the concluded to pay their fines. This was all of the kind.

The work of survey had progressed twelve miles inland from the Bay of San Blas, at which distance the first mountain spurs proper were reached, the highest elevation passed being one hundred and twelve feet. GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 114⅝a114⅞.

THE actual reduction of the public debt, by the present administration, to this date is $114,420,100, being the amount of the special and sinking funds in which the Treasury purchases have been invested. The interest thereon is applied to a still further reduction of the principal outstanding.

IT SEEMS that the Lynch bill, "for the revival of American shipping and commercial interests" is not yet looked upon as dead for the session. The main question has not been put upon it, a motion to that effect having been defeated. The question will recur again, at an early day, and with its friends confident of its success. The subject awakens a deeper interest every day.

WE heartily second the suggestion by a correspondent of a city journal, of the name of JAMES L. PAUL, the present Chief Clerk of the Soldiers' Orphans' School Department, as that of a most eligible candidate for appointment by the Governor to the vacant Superintendency. His military record was excellent, his personal character is unexceptionable, and his official qualifications are patent to all who have business with the Department. It would gratify exceedingly the friends, both of the Governor and of Mr. PAUL, in this quarter of the State, if the Executive, in placing, as he should, a speedy period to the present abnormal condition of the Departmental service, would also confer the vacant trust upon the excellent citizen of whom we now speak with but simple justice.

IT IS that "Crawford county plan," so much lauded by politicians of his own peculiar kidney, upon which one George K. Anderson, a citizen of Crawford, relies to secure for him a Republican nomination for the Senate of Pennsylvania. Yet, if we were to accept the glowing assurances of the handful of disinterested patriots who have sometimes attempted to wheedle our friends of Allegheny into adopting that plan of nomination, it would always be efficacious in promoting the choice of unexceptionable men to place on our tickets. To trust their eulogies upon this great "improvement" over the delegate system, you would never suppose that it was the chosen means by which pinchers, roosters, bribers—and all sorts of political and personal scallawags without either principle or the shadow of repute for it—ever find their personal ambitions most thoroughly subserved. The counties of Erie and Crawford, in their past and present political history, annually present more or less ample certificates of the utter worthlessness of the "Crawford county system" for anything more than a device to cheat and disappoint the honest rank and file of the party.

AS WE EXPECTED, now comes the Philadelphia Age to instruct our three Republican Judges of the Supreme Court as to their duty in the matter of their prothonotaries. Fancy the Age offering its advice to Judge WILLIAMS! Day after day, and month after month, last year, that journal, in the interest of the Democracy, blackened the personal and professional character of H. W. WILLIAMS, declaring him to be a repudiator, or an accomplice in repudiation, or an apologist for that form of public dishonesty. Its daily slanders upon our candidate were the stock in trade of the entire opposition press of the Commonwealth. But none of its utterly baseless fabrications were so artfully adapted to his injury, as would be the fatal mistake to which the Age now urges Judge WILLIAMS and his Republican associates. He and they could survive Democratic slanders then, but the Democratic advice, if followed now, would surely banish them all from public life, at the first practicable moment—with the hearty good will of that popular majority whose wishes they had utterly disregarded in a matter not judicial but strictly political. But we have never entertained the remotest apprehension that either of them could make such a mistake.

THE Pittsburgh Chronicle has a correspondent at Washington who writes, of the debate in the House on Cuban affairs, as follows:

> The cream of the whole debate, participated in by Democrats and Radicals, when skimmed off and put by itself, amounted to just this: That the Administration has no foreign policy; that whatever influence it has, has been cast on the side of cruelty and oppression; that the Government has allowed Spain to fit out vessels in our ship yards and leave our ports to engage in the destruction of a people who were earnestly struggling for liberty; that it has cast all its influences on the side of oppression and the oppressors; that the State Department is without vigor, the Administration without firmness, and that Congress partakes of the qualities of both.

—The Chronicle is profoundly neutral in its own politics, and we choose to take for granted that its management wish faithfully to adhere to that position. The extract quoted is but one of the frequent proofs of the partizan unfairness of that correspondent, which, in accord with its professions, our cotemporary should guard against. The writer's hatred of "Radicals" is always undisguised, and his statements of fact, when capable of a partizan coloring, are invariably incorrect, as in the quotation above. We need not add that each of its deductions, which he elaborates with so much of Democratic zeal, is false in design and false in fact, but quite in keeping with the general tenor of his correspondence.

THE Armstrong Republican has reliable information, that a resolution will be introduced at the next session of our State Senate, to expel Senator Kerr, of the Armstrong and Butler district, from his seat in that body. The Republican adds:

> Of course this will give rise to discussion, and the result will be a Committee of Investigation. What a disgraceful predicament for a man to be placed in, having any pretensions to integrity, honor or decency, and what a disgrace to the District! We hope, for his own sake and for the sake of his few friends, that he will send in his resignation, and retire forever to the shades of private life.

—This is a faithful picture of a very general feeling of dissatisfaction among the Republican people of that district—a feeling which time will not eradicate, and no artful silence of the Senator can lead his constituents to forget.

We have other evidences that the next session of the Senate will be occupied with the exhaustive ventilation of the shameful transactions which, last winter, earned so much odium for certain legislators and lobby-men. One of the latter has the assurance to offer himself now as a candidate for Senatorial nomination in a strong Republican district here in the west. His efforts to buy off opposition, or the exposure of his complicity in those transactions, have been already made in at least one quarter, and promptly repelled. He has been made aware that, if nominated, he may not be elected, and if elected he will have to go through a sharp ordeal of purgation before admission to his seat. That ordeal would finish him. He could not escape it or its consequences. Republicans who properly value the integrity of their party, and of the public service, will make war upon all such men, war to the knife, and that to the hilt, now and hereafter to the end, declining all compromises and regardless of all menaces. They shall stand exposed, and in due time punished, before the people. Better a score of defeats than any victory through dishonorable alliances! If such men will persist in thrusting themselves upon the public notice, they cannot expect to evade all the just penalties for their misconduct.

THE PACIFIC RAILWAYS.

We may congratulate the country at large upon the final passage, yesterday in the House, of the Senate bill relating to the Northern Pacific Railway. It will be remembered that a partially successful effort was made, when this bill was first reported to the House, for its defeat, but its friends were wise enough to delay further action upon it, until the merits of the measure could become more precisely known, and our telegrams now reveal the fruits which rewarded their prudent forbearance.

There was, in fact, no just cause for any opposition to a measure which was in every respect national in its purview and most equitable in its details. But the free-trade element, a strong one, in the House arrayed itself in a solid column against the proposition to build this great road with American material, as the Senate had directed—and they found effective and willing allies in the especial friends of the present monopoly of the trans-continental business by the Union Pacific line. For several weeks, it has seemed even possible that this combination might succeed in defeating the bill altogether. But its friends were active and shrewd; they enlisted the support of members who are already committed to a third or Southern line, by way of El Paso; they improved every occasion to urge upon individual members the National need for a free competition, with the fullest facilities, in the connections between the coasts of the Atlantic and Pacific; and the duty of making an early provision for the construction of these two additional lines which will satisfy the requirements of the people for one or two coming generations. These arguments and appeals have accomplished their work, and the Northern line is now rendered a certainty, while there can be no doubt that the Southern route will gain a similar approval.

It is quite impossible to form even an approximate opinion of the vast influence which the construction of these railways to the Pacific is to exercise upon the political and material future of the Republic. Considering that the remotest points on our Pacific coast are thereby to become practically nearer to the Federal Capital than was Missouri when first Thomas H. Benton become Senator from that State, and in view of the resistless social tendencies of the age to the more complete assimmilation, of all who enjoy the citizenship of the Republic, into one homogenous people, ignoring wholly those distinctions which the last generation accepted as ineffaceable—we are free to indulge the just hope that the America of the year of grace Nineteen Hundred, with its one hundred millions of republican people, will be not only the most powerful and most prosperous, and most enlightened of Christian lands, but that it will offer also the most perfect and splendid instance of a compact National solidarity, on the globe. Then, our children, and those who follow them, may begin to perceive the simple grandeur of the truth, in the realization of Webster's patriotic hope—"The Union, one and inseparable, now and forever!"

OUR GERMAN PRESS.

THE Freiheits Freund has articles upon the Fenians on the War Path; A New Canal Project; and the Russianizing of the Germans in the Baltic Provinces. Of this last it says: "The gruff Russian bear who has principally the Germans to thank for what little refinement he has, now troubles himself as a reward for this, to destroy the centres of German culture in his dominions. He has now, with his awkward paws, made a slap at the old German University at Livland. This seat of German learning which was founded by the Swedish King Gustavus Adolphus in the year 1630, shall now be Russianized, inasmuch as an imperial ukase has been issued which commands that all correspondence between the Council, the Directory, the individual Faculty and the Rector, shall in future be carried on wholly in the Russian language. This ukase will probably lead to the dissolution of the University as the greater part of the teachers have decided to oppose it with all their might, and rather to give up their situations than allow themselves to be Russianized. Naturally this would be a welcome opportunity for the Russians to deal an annihilating blow at the University as well as at all the Germanism of the Baltic provinces, which for so long has been a thorn in their flesh. For this bold rebellion of the Russians against the German language and refinement, the German want of unity is partly responsible. If a portion of the South Germans had not opposed themselves so obstinately to the Prussians, these would not have been obliged to regard in silence all that Russia has been undertaking in the Baltic provinces, in order to secure an ally in case of a conflict with France. An united Germany need not fear the combined powers of France and Russia, and would command respect from both sides. It is to be hoped, however, that the time may yet come when the Germans shall reckon with the Russians for the treatment which their fellows have received at their hands.

THE Volksblatt has articles upon: The Elections in New York; the Iberian Union and Iceland and Denmark, of which last it says: Of all the secession projects that are now agitated the most peculiar probably is that which undertakes to separate Iceland from Denmark. Iceland has a population of 65,000 souls, who have their own troubles to support bare existence. The dwellers upon the island are of Norwegian descent; although the knowledge of the Danish language is pretty thorough, especially upon the coast, still the old Norwegian language is the predominant one here where it has been maintained in its purity. The Icelanders are protestants, and do much for elementary education. One seldom finds one of them who cannot read or write. As early as the year 1380 Iceland, with Norway, came under the control of Denmark and remained even when Norway fell to Sweden in 1814. They were highly indignant at the beginning of this century, when Denmark abolished the "Althing," or parliament, which had existed for nine centuries. In this Althing, the affairs of the island were consulted upon and directed by representatives chosen by the people. In 1843, by a Cabinet order, a semblance of this old privilege was given back to the island.

The Republikaner seems to be translated as well as usual.

AND now comes a Turkish gentleman, who hastens to prepare himself for the proposed change in the social status of womankind. In a letter to the Pall Mall Gazette, after saying he has no objection to the ladies who took part in a recent suffrage meeting in London sharing in political duties and honors, he states that he has left all his ladies home free to do as they please in his absence, with no threat of sack or Bosphorus.

The Census.

(From the Ohio State Journal.)

It is presumed that the instructions for the taking of the census are now in the hands of the Assistant Marshals, who are to begin the work of enumeration on the 1st of June. The work is to continue without interruption until it is complete. Intermission of work will be cause for removal. Assistants are required to make regular reports to the Marshal once a fortnight, on pain of removal.

Francis A. Walker, Superintendent of the Census, has issued very minute and full instructions to the Assistants. A wayfaring man, though an Assistant Marshal, cannot err therein. For all failures through carelessness or inefficiency, the Superintendent notifies Assistants that all costs of correspondence, clerk hire, etc., in making corrections, will be deducted from their own compensation. It behooves Assistant Marshals, therefore, to be careful, and know their business.

The enumeration is to be made by actual inquiry at every dwelling house, or by personal inquiry of every head of a family, and not otherwise. This duty can be performed by the assistant marshals alone, and citizens will be duly notified not to answer questions from any other source, neither is the assistant permitted to divulge the information obtained. Courtesy is especially enjoined upon the census takers. Assistant marshals, on receiving notice of their appointment, are advised and requested to prosecute informal inquiries, within the limits of civility and discretion, in any direction which will enable them the better to begin and complete their work, especially to make themselves as intelligent as possible in regard to the industrial character of their subdivisions, and the peculiar conditions of each important industry.

"Indians not taxed" are to be enumerated in a special report, for statistical purposes—though not required by law to be enumerated.

There are some very interesting notes under the head of "Occupation." The census takers are exhorted to make a study of them, and we reproduce the points at length.

The Assistant Marshals are to take especial pains to avoid unmeaning terms, or such as are too general to convey a definite idea of the occupation. Call no man a "factory hand" or a "mill operative." State the kind of a mill or factory. The better form of expression would be, "works in cotton mill," "works in paper mill," etc. Do not call a man a "shoemaker," "bootmaker," unless he makes the entire boot or shoe in a small shop. If he works in (or for) a boot and shoe factory say so.

Do not apply the word "jeweler" to those who make watches, watch chains or jewelry in large manufacturing establishments.

Call no man a "commissioner," a "collector," an "agent," an "artist," an "overseer," a "professor," a "treasurer," a "contractor," or a "speculator" without further explanation.

When boys are entered as apprentices, state the trade they are apprenticed to, as "apprenticed to carpenter," "apothecary's apprentice."

When a lawyer, a merchant, a manufacturer, has retired from practice or business say "retired lawyer," "retired merchant," &c. Distinguish between fire and life insurance agents.

When clerks are returned, describe them as "clerk in store," "clerk in woolen mill," "R. R. clerk," "bank clerk," &c.

Describe no man as "mechanic" if it is possible to describe him more accurately.

Distinguish between stone masons and brick masons.

Do not call a paper bonnet maker a bonnet manufacturer, a lace maker a lace manufacturer, a chocolate maker a chocolate manufacturer. Reserve the term Manufacturer for proprietors of establishments; always give the branch of manufacture.

Whenever merchants or traders can be reported under a single word expressive of their special line, as "grocer," it should be done. Otherwise, say dry goods merchant, coal dealer, &c.

Add, in all cases, the class of business, as wholesale (wh.), retail (ret.), importer (imp.), jobber, &c.

Use the word Huckster in all cases where it applies.

Be very particular to distinguish between farmers and farm laborers. In agricultural regions this should be one of the points to which the Assistant Marshal should especially direct his attention.

Confine the use of the words "glover," "hatter" and "furrier," to those who actually make, or make up, in their own establishments, all, or a part, of the gloves and hats or furs which they sell. Those who only sell these articles should be characterized as "glove dealer," hat and cap dealer," "fur dealer."

Judges (state whether Federal or State, whether Probate, Police, or otherwise) may be assumed to be lawyers, and that addition, therefore, need not be given; but all other officials should have their profession designated, if they have any, as "retired merchant, Governor of Massachusetts," "paper manufacturer, representative in legislature." If anything is to be omitted, leave out the office, and put in the occupation.

As far as possible distinguish machinists as "locomotive builders," "engine builders," &c.

Instead of saying "packers," indicate whether you mean "pork packers" or "crockery packers," or "mule packers."

The organization of domestic service has not proceeded so far in this country as to render it worth while to make distinction in the character of work. Report all as "domestic servants."

Cooks, waiters, &c., in hotels and restaurants will be reported separately from domestic servants.

The term "house-keeper" will be reserved for such persons as receive distinct wages or salary for the service. Women keeping house for their own families or for themselves, without any other gainful occupation, will be entered as "keeping house." Grown daughters assisting them will be reported without occupation.

You are under no obligation to give any man's occupation just as he expresses it. If he cannot tell intelligibly what he is, find out what he does, and characterize his profession accordingly.

The inquiry as to occupation will not be asked in respect to infants or children too young to take any part in production. Neither will the doing of domestic errands of family chores out of school be considered an occupation. "At home" or "attending school" will be the best entry in the majority of cases. But if a boy or girl, whatever the age, is earning money regularly by labor, contributing to the family support, or appreciably assisting in mechanical or agricultural industry, the occupation should be stated.

There is a like particularity of nomenclature and classification under the head of "Diseases," and, if the marshals succeed in making themselves masters of the plain and common directions, the returns will be of great statistical value.

In short, the instructions as to all departments—agriculture, products of industry, &c., &c.—are exhaustive. The "products of industry," for example, are illustrated under the general sub-heads of resource and machinery, materials, product; and mining, with additional for machinery labor, above ground and under ground, materials and product. Special directions are given for all the different employments of productive industry.

Social Statistics are placed upon a different basis from all others, and more latitude is given in their collection. They may be obtained, as far as possible, from official documents—such as published reports, or the manuscript records of schools, colleges, prisons, asylums, &c. When such reports or records are not found, or are insufficient for the demands of the schedule, the information may, in perhaps the majority of cases, be obtained by correspondence. Marshals are, therefore, allowed at their discretion to appoint Deputy Marshals for the collection of Social Statistics. Such appointments do not constitute an interference with the duties of Assistant Marshals (Sec. 7, Act of May 23, 1850.) One or more Deputy Marshals may be allowed to collect Social Statistics of an entire District or State, and will receive all the compensation allowed by law for the service. They will then report by counties, sending in separate schedules. Large cities, however, will be reported by themselves.

The public may greatly facilitate the work of enumeration by giving some attention to the matter before the visit of the census taker. The importance of fullness and accuracy need not be mentioned to persons of education, and all men and women of good sense will give all the aid in their power to the marshals, rather than feel inclined to resent the inquisition, as the ignorant and vulgar sometimes do. The necessity for courtesy and gentlemanly demeanor on the part of the officials set to do the work is sufficiently insisted upon in the instructions, and the measures are well taken to prevent publicity. The disclosures will be in the nature of confidential, privileged matter, for the good of the State, but not for public tattle.

PENNSYLVANIA.

SCARLET fever is epidemic in Chester.

WARREN is to have a $20,000 bridge.

INCENDIARIES are epidemic in Altoona.

AN unusual amount of electricity seems to have been striking about the State.

THE latest postoffice changes are: Spraggs, Greene county, W. M. Spragg, vice John Strosnider, resigned. New Alexandria, Westmoreland county, James M. George, vice Wm. Kinkaid, removed.

ON Sunday evening, just after the Presbyterian Church at Cameron had been lit up for the evening service, one of the large chandeliers near the pulpit gave way and fell to the floor, smashing the lamps and scattering the oil in every direction, fortunately the lamps went out and the oil did not take fire, otherwise the church would undoubtedly have been destroyed.

THE body of a man, whose appearance indicated death from violence, was found on Saturday on the line of the Medina Railroad, near Clifton station, in Delaware county. One side of his head looked as though driven in by blows with a hatchet. A woman's shawl was near him. The Coroner of Delaware took charge of the body, and will make an investigation into the matter.

SUNDAY night last, between 9 and 10 o'clock, whilst Mr. Alfred Smith, a young man of Mahanoy City, was sitting on the porch of Mr. Alex. Fister, with three ladies, an unknown man came up on the porch and attempted to go into the entry. Mr. Smith got up and asked the intruder "Where are you going?" He answered, "It is none of your business." Mr. Smith then took hold of the man, who had been playing drunk, and pushed him from the porch. Just as the man got off of the porch, he sprung at Mr. Smith and struck him on the left breast with his fist, and immediately followed it up by stabbing him. The blade, which is supposed to be that of a dirk knife, penetrated Mr. Smith's left breast just below the heart, inflicting a most dangerous wound. When the man struck him, Mr. Smith struck him in return, knocking him off the pavement. The man sprung up actively, showing that his drunken demeanor was but a sham, and made again for Mr. Smith, but the ladies drew the latter into the entry, and closing the door locked it. The impression is that the assault was intended for Mr. Fister, who was a witness in the hearing to release on bail Brown and Pat Lee, charged with burning Sillimans breaker. Mr. Smith's condition is precarious. He has suffered much pain from the wound. He has to be kept very quiet to prevent continued hemorrhage.

Old Fashioned Executions in London.

As one glances at Tyburn, he may observe that the house No. 49 Connaught Square is said to stand where the once permanent gibbet was erected. From 1191, when Fitzosborne was hanged there, to 1783, when John Austed closed the dance of death in a Tyburn tippet, many as eminent people died at Tyburn tree as were to be seen round about Piccadilly and Pall Mall. Among those eminent people of their various days might be gathered a very remarkable cartful or two. We need only cite pretty and wicked Agnes Hungerford, for poisoning her husband; the poet Southwell, who, probably, was guilty of slander against Queen Elizabeth; the five out of the threescore subscribers to the death judgment of Charles the First; Sir Charles Armstrong, a victim of the Rye House plot affair; Lord Ferrers, who would be hanged in his wedding clothes, and Rev. Dr. Dodd, that once fashionable preacher, for whom one cannot help feeling a little sympathy. People went to the hangings as to a festival. The vulgar drank and swore worse than our army in Flanders, while the "quality" made a picnic of it. The longer the whole ceremony—the addresses to the people, the leave taking with kinsfolk and sweethearts—the better the spectators were pleased. The finale was as lugubrious as imagination can conceive. The ropes round the victim's necks were fastened to the beams, the carts were lazily driven away from under them, and the hanging man rode off without giving himself any further trouble. Then the friends, familiars or relatives of the hanging man rushed to the suspended bodies and began pulling them by the legs or dealing them heavy blows in the stomach, in order to bring their sufferings to an end. The Newgate chaplain, meanwhile, took his ham and his liquor in the first friendly carriage into which he was invited; and at night the whole affair was talked over in London and the suburbs, from the "Sun in the Sands" at Greenwich, to the Assembly Rooms at Hampstead, from the "Grave Maurice" in the East to the "White Horse," Piccadilly, or the "Star and Garter," Pall Mall. Men, in the last century, seemed to go as naturally to Tyburn as Irish Colonels to Gretna Green and young ladies of St. James' talked about the last execution with the strolling player, who was their dancing master, or the deserter from Dunkirk who taught them French.—London Athenaeum.

The Naked Drama in Cincinnati.

Quite an interesting exhibition took place on Elm street, yesterday afternoon. A couple of grown men who ought to have known better, went in bathing in the canal, near the Vine street bridge. About three o'clock, just when they were having the best of the fun, a policeman made his appearance upon the bridge, and before they could reach the bank the blue coat had their clothes and was leaving with them. The incautious bathers made a very pathetic appeal for their raiment, but the watchman was unyielding, and carried the garments away, and hid them. Returning to the canal he stoned the pair until he drove them out of the water. He then chased them, stark naked as they were, along the canal, to Elm street, and down Elm, through crowds of people on every square, to Seventh street.

The procession then moved east on Seventh street, to midway between Elm and Race streets, where one of the naked individuals rushed into a little dwelling, closely followed by his friend. The bathers did not stop to look at the door-plate to see whether either of them lived there or was acquainted with the occupants of the house, but threw themselves unreservedly on the mercy of the family. They had reason to congratulate themselves upon their choice of a refuge. The gentleman of the house loaned each of them a suit of his clothes, and would not hear of their leaving until the "beak" had disappeared.—Cin. Commercial.

APROPOS of the woman suffrage question, a matron in Joliet, Illinois, gives "a piece of her mind," and, as we believe in "fair play," we must "give the old lady a chance."

"I just don't believe in these new women notions. I have raised six boys; four of them vote now, and the others will soon be old enough. Then I will have six votes. Now these good-for-nothing women, who have fooled their time away, and never raised a single boy, come around and want every woman to vote for herself. I don't believe in such nonsense. I have raised by six boys, and I am going to have every one vote for me. Those women who go lecturing around the country, instead of raising boys, have no business to vote anyway. And when they say that they are just as good as I am, and have a right to vote themselves, if they have no boys to do so for them, it is not true. If they are as smart as I am, why did they not raise some boys to vote for them? I tell you, I do not intend to be cheated out of my six votes by any such good-for-nothing folks. I guess the world would come to a pretty pass in a short time, if the women all took to goin' round lecturing on wimmin's rights, instead of rising boys."

ORGANS.—There is a growing taste for organ music; and no musical household is really complete without its parlor organ as well as its piano forte, while the comparatively low price of the former instrument places it within the reach of many families who cannot afford the other. In selecting an organ, whether for home or more public use, it is, of course, advisable to get the best, and that best is unquestionably the American Organ, manufactured by Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith, of Boston. In all that goes to make up a superior instrument—purity of tone, power, nicety of touch, promptness of action, breadth of expression and musical effect, and elegance of exterior as well as interior finish—these organs excel. In Europe, as well as in our own country, the American Organ is immensely popular, and its superiority over other instruments of its class is acknowledged wherever it has been introduced. In short, the Messrs. Smith have the facilities for producing the best instruments—and they do it.

ON the last day of August, 1870, will take place at Geneva, Switzerland, a congress of the geologists of the Alps. This body embraces those savants of Switzerland, France, Italy, Germany and Austria who have made a specialty of the geology of the Alps. The session will last three days, and then excursions will be made to the most interesting spots (in a geological point of view) in the vicinity.

FAREWELL TO MAY.

Among the falling apple flowers
The mated robins sing;
The hyacinths are fading fast—
It is the last of Spring.
Its sweet, last day! "Oh, why,
Fair maiden May," we sigh,
"Wilt thou not linger?" Hush! for June
Delays until she goes;
And we must see the violets fade
Before we pluck a rose.

'Tis only losing we can win
And giving we can take;
Our pleasures, tarrying too long,
Our sorest trials make.
The hearts that grieve to lose thee, May,
Would sorrow more to have thee stay.
Farewell, farewell, then, gentle Spring!
Our blessing with thee goes;
Above the withering violets
We see the opening rose!

ANNIE D. GREEN, in Harper's Magazine for June.

A Philadelphia Bible Class.

The Jenkins of a Philadelphia newspaper is responsible for the following: "Jay Cooke, the banker, the other day entertained his Bible class at a magnificent residence in Philadelphia, with a delightful fete champetre, including many games, such as foot-ball, quoits, base ball, foot races, banana pulling, in which tempting bunches of the luscious fruit were suspended from the branch of a tree, while the nimble fellows jumped, and climbed, and struggled good humoredly for the prize; a greased pole to be climbed for a set of valuable books; sack races and other forms of fun and athletic exercises. A substantial dinner was cooked at great fires, built in the open air, and was disposed of with a zest heightened by vigorous exercise and the sauce of universal contentment. In the afternoon great supplies of ice cream and cake made their appearance, and were quickly disposed of. Mr. Cooke was himself not only the life and centre of the whole affair, but was evidently the ringleader in all the jollity which he had so liberally devised for others. Telegrams arriving in rapid succession, announcing vast financial transactions, and sometimes requiring instant reply, found Mr. Cooke gleefully sending a huge foot-ball sky-high, or placing a quoit close up to the stake."

THE POPULAR TONIC OF THE AGE.

The day has gone by when a medicine without merit could command and retain the confidence of the world. Advertising induces the public to try many things, but in this shrewd and thoughtful age, words will not suffice without proofs, and it is by the exercise of their private judgment, men determine the relative value of the various articles recommended to their notice through the business columns of newspapers. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has now been subjected to this searching ordeal for more than eighteen years, and the result is that it stands at the head of the class of remedies to which it belongs. It has distanced and lived down innumerable competitors, and is to-day the Standard Vegetable Tonic of the western world. The happy effects which have followed its use in cases of dyspepsia, billiousness, nervous affections, intermittent fevers and general debility, and as a constitutional invigorant, have entitled it to universal confidence. Nothing can ever shake its reputation, for it is based on the individual experiences of tens of thousands of witnesses, embracing prominent and well-known citizens of every profession, occupation and class. There is not a city, town or settlement in the United States where it is not a medicinal staple. No druggist or general dealer would consider his stock complete without it, and the returns of the internal revenue department show that its sales exceed those of any other proprietory restorative manufactured on this side of the Atlantic. The beneficial results derived during a long series of years from the use of Hostetter's Bitters, have convinced the whole community that the only true way to restore to health a broken down or debilitated system, or to put the human body on its defense when exposed to unwholesome influences, is to invigorate, regulate and purify it at one and the same time.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL PRIVATE DISEASES, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, Pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE ST., (near Court House) Pittsburgh.

MONEY AND COMMERCE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, May 26, 1870.

Gold has a strong upward tendency, opening to-day at 114⅜, and closed at 114¼. The purchases are principally by the stock cliques for speculative account in order to maintain and advance the price of railroad securities. Aside from this and in support from the speculative movements, there are sufficient reasons to believe in much higher prices for gold during the next three months. The constant outflow of gold to Europe, the lower quotations for our bonds in the European markets, and the light exports, we must consider for some time to come are all sufficient reasons to keep the gold market firm, if not advancing the premium long before there is any actual cause for a rise.

Government Bonds were very strong to-day, but slightly advanced above yesterday's quotations. The price, however, is kept artificially low by speculators who have large lots of bonds lying in Europe unsold.

The stock market has a very strong and advancing tendency, and it will be attempted to force prices much higher on a steady run if possible. Pacific Mail, Ohio and Mississippi railroad and Reading shares are strongest, also St. Paul; the balance of the list is stronger but has not yet advanced.

Money remains easy.

PITTSBURGH CATTLE MARKET.

EAST LIBERTY STOCK YARDS,
THURSDAY, May 26, 1879.

CATTLE.

The operations in cattle were again light this week, owing to the the very light supply, and a much larger number could have been sold, as the offerings did not begin to satisfy the demand. There was again a very good attendance of buyers both from Philadelphia and New York, and this being the case, the market, as might be expected, ruled very strong, and, compared with last week, prices have still further advanced, and the quotations are higher now, we believe, than they have been for five years. There is the same complaint among stock buyers about the exorbitant price now prevailing, and with good reason, too, and as a general thing, the trade is very unsatisfactory to all except stock stock growers; many drovers and butchers would much rather retire from business for a time and make money by so doing, if it was possible, but this they cannot do. They are obliged to keep up their trade even if it does not pay at times, as it is much easier to let it run down than it is to build it up again.

The sales since the date of our last report foot up about seven hundred head, and as will be seen by reference to the report of sales, prices ranged all they way from 5.80 to 9,62½, but the bulk of the sales were at 8 to 9c. Everything considered, there is an advance of fully ½, perhaps ¾, since last week, and even at the advance the supply did not begin to satisfy the demand.

Jacob Needy sold a car load at 9½ for which he could not get 9c in Allegheny, on Monday.

SHEEP.

The arrivals have been much smaller this week than last, and with no falling off in the demand, the market ruled strong and prices have advanced full half a cent per pound since this day week. The demand is restricted mainly to the better grades, and, consequently, prime sheep sold more readily, and at better prices than the commoner grades, though all kinds are higher than last week. Quotations may be fairly given at 3@4½, for inferior to common, 5@5½ for middling; 5¾@6 for good, and 6@6½ for prime—we are cognizant of the outside figure having been paid for a drove averaging 90 lbs.

HOGS.

The hog market is moderately active, and the supply has not thus far been as large as that of last week. Light hogs are higher relatively than the better grades, which was brought about by a lively competition between Baltimore and New York buyers. To-day Baltimore men were paying 9@9½, while New Yorkers said that they could not pay over 8½. Philadelphia hogs may be quoted at 9½@9¾, with some few sales of extra at 10.

Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—Flour dull and declined 25c; extra $4,75@5,00; extra family $5@6,50. Wheat quotations barely maintained; western red $1,30@1,35. Rye held at $1. Corn active with yellow at $1,10@1,10½. Oats steady. Petroleum firm: crude 19c; refined 27c. Provisions; demand light. Mess Pork $29,50. Whisky steady at $1,09 for western iron and $1,07@1,08 for wood.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, May 26, 1870.

The markets for general merchandize continue dull and unsatisfactory, the sales being small, comparatively, and margins in many instances, still less. There is no improvement to note in the grain trade, and with little or no inquiry for shipment, and a meagre local demand, dealers in many instances, are obliged to store. We learn from one of our Chicago exchanges, that the amount of wheat in store there last week increased over half a million bushels, compared with the previous week, yet in face of this, prices have been screwed up higher. In regard to flour, the same paper says:

"This market continues very quiet, not on account of a lack of demand, but because there is no stock of the grades wanted to fill the orders of buyers. Flour that is selling at $4,25 and less is extremely scarce, and there are orders here for several thousand barrels, but receivers neither have the supply nor are the millers willing to contract for round lots at present, they seeming to have confidence in their opinion that better prices will be obtained than are now current. There is also a very fair demand for choice spring Minnesotas, and the stock of this grade is only moderately large and firmly held. Flour that is worth from $4,50@5 is in very good supply and limited demand.

APPLES—Sales reported at $5@6½ per bbl, for fair to choice. Receipts continue very light.

BUTTER—Demand is improving, and we are reported sales of prime to choice at 20@23.

BROOMS—Store prices: Fancy, $5,50; No. 1, $4,50; No. 2, $4; No. 3, $3,50; Common, $2,50@3.

BEANS—Dull but nominally unchanged, $1,50@1,75 per bushel.

CARBON OIL—Quiet and unchanged; 23½ to 24 for standard brands in a jobbing way.

CHEESE—Choice old New York State Factory, 17; New York State Goshen, (new) 16@16½; Ohio Goshen at 15@15½.

CORNMEAL—Quiet and unchanged, 95@$1 per bushel.

CEMENT—Sales of Louisville Hydraulic at $3@3½ per bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—The demand is rather better while prices are unchanged. Apples 6@7 cts; Peaches, 6@7 for quarters, and 8@9 for halves. Blackberries, 12@14 and pitted Cherries, 20@23.

EGGS—Demand continues active, and with limited arrivals, market is firm with sales at 18@19 cts.

FLOUR—The market is quiet and firm but unchanged. Spring wheat flours range all the way from $5,25@6, as there is a great difference in the quality. Winter wheat flours are quoted at $5,50@6, and fancy brands at $7,00@7,50. Rye flour, $5.

GRAIN—Wheat is coming in more freely, and while the market is weaker, prices as yet are not quotably lower; $1,15@1,20 for red, and $1,25@1,30 for white. Corn is dull but unchanged; 83@85 for ear and 88@90 for shelled. It is rather singular that corn is worth more in the west than it is here, but such is the case—quoted at $1,15@1,20 at Nashville. Rye is quiet and unchanged; we continue to quote at 95 to $1, cash and time. For Barley there is no inquiry scarcely and little or none offering.

HAY—The demand continues light, and with liberal arrivals, the market is dull and prices drooping; wagon hay, $12@18 for common to prime timothy.

HEMP—Sales of undressed Kentucky Hemp at $167.

HUSKS—Corn husks, 3@3½ cts.

LARD OIL—City brands, $1,26@1,28 for No. 1, and 85@87 for No. 2. Well established Cincinnati and Chicago brands $1,32@1,33 for extra No. 1.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland at $2,25 per bbl, and eastern at $1,75.

POTATOES—No improvement to note in the demand and no change to make in quotations; Peach Blows, 35@40c per bushel.

PEARL BARLEY—No. 4, 5½c per lb; No. 3, 5¾; No. 1, 6¾. Oat Meal—A & B per bbl, of 200 lbs, $10; for half bbl, 100 lbs, $5,50.

PROVISIONS—Market steady with a continued fair jobbing demand, but unchanged. Shoulders, 13¾@14 for plain and 15¼@15½ for Sugar Cured; Rib Sides, 16¾; Clear Short Rib, 17¼; Clear, 17¾; Breakfast Bacon, 18¾; Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams, 20¾@21. Mess Pork, $30¾@31. Lard, 17@17¼ in tierces and 18@18¼ in kgs.

PEANUTS—Dull. Tennessee, 8@9 cts.

SEEDS—There is no inquiry for either Timothy or Clover Seeds and the season may be regarded as over. Flaxseed is in steady demand at $2,15, with but very little offering, and a round lot might bring $2,20.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, May 26, 1870.

The oil market continues very dull and is devoid of anything new or important. There are several causes for the present stagnation, the most prominent of which is the high freights. Compared with last year, the manufacturer has to pay 10 cents per bbl more on crude, and 25c per bbl on refined, making in all 35c per bbl, or over ¾ of a cent per gallon, which of itself is a very snug margin. This is unfortunate, but there sems to be no help for it. Our refiners thought the rates were entirely too high in 1869, but this year, as will be seen, is worse still: instead of getting a reduction, as hoped for, the rates have been advanced, and that, too, right in the face of a very dull and unsatisfactory market. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company instead of protecting the oil interest here as she should, appears to be doing all in her power to cripple and destroy it.

CRUDE.

Market dull and neglected though prices are without quotable change. Sale of 1,000 and 1,300 bbls for immediate delivery at 12⅜; and 1,000 seller June at 12⅜. Seller July 12⅜@12⅝; seller all year 11½@12; and buyer all year 13⅜@14.

REFINED.

Market opened quiet but steady and closed a shade easier. There is considerable inquiry mainly for early months, but the prices offered are not satisfactory, and, consequently, sales are of rare occurrence. May and June quoted at 27⅜@27⅝; July and August, 27⅜; August to December 28, bid; buyer all year, 29, bid.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with 6 feet 10 inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks. The weather last evening was cloudy and a little warmer, with every appearance of more rain.

The Bellevernon departed for New Orleans with a fair trip, and engagements below. Pilots—Thomas Morris and John Ferguson.

The Juniata departed for Cincinnati in the afternoon with a good freight list, and but few passengers.

The Belle, from Geneva, arrived and departed. She had an excellent down trip, as well be seen by reference to her manifest.

The R. J. Lockwood, Capt. Conkle, is filling up rapidly, and will depart for St. Louis to-morrow. We are informed by Capt. Conkle that with 150 tons of freight on board, she only drew two feet of water.

The staunch Wauanita, Capt. Conway, as will be seen by card, is announced to depart for St. Louis to-morrow.

It is reported that the tow boat Lioness stuck a part of her tow near the Pork House.

The Granite State, Capt. Kerr, is the regular packet for Portsmouth to-day leaving at 4 P. M.

The Glasgow arrived at New Orleans on Tuesday and the Glendale reached St. Louis the same day.

—The Glendale arrived at St. Louis on Tuesday.

—The Juniata left for Cincinnati yesterday afternoon.

—Capt. Lee Crane has taken command of the low pressure steamer Hunter.

—The Leonidas from New Orleans has 673 bars railroad iron for Louisville.

—The Savanna was to have left Cincinnati for St. Louis on Tuesday evening.

—The Messenger left Cincinnati for this port on Tuesday. Pilots—Crate Reno and Nick Whitten.

—At last accounts the Ironsides' barges were aground. The recent rise has, no doubt, let them off before tnis time.

—Pilot Campbell, a resident of Georgetown, near Pittsburgh, is an invalid on the Messenger, going home. His complaint is chronic diarrhea.

—The stands of cotton along the Arkansas are looking fine and promise an abundant yield. It is anticipated that the cotton crop will be larger this season than ever before.

—The Lorena in tow of the Jonas Powell, arrived at Cincinnati on Tuesday where her broken shaft will be mended. She reshipped her Pittsburgh freight on the Wauanita.

—The Northern Line Packet Company's steamer Petrel arrived at Little Rock on the 16th, with a barge loaded with ice. She sunk one barge below and left one forty miles below Pine Bluff.

—Freight rates from St. Louis to Memphis have increased to 20c. per barrel for flour, 12c per 100 pounds for corn, 15c per 100 pounds for bacon, and 20c per 100 pounds for hay. An additional advance is looked for.

—Mr. J. Dodge, for many years a steward on the river, has invented and patented a coffee-pot, which he claims saves 33⅓ per cent of coffee, much time and labor, and makes better coffee than the old style of dripping.

—A Telegram informs us that Ouachita River is falling fast, and navigation becoming quite difficult. The Mayflower, in the event of not going through will transfer her freight to the light draught packet Lightwood, for Camden.

—A recent investigation by an English Board of Trade has developed the fact that many of the English merchant vessels are eighty years old and over. The investigation was made in the interest of sailors who go down to the sea in ships, and do business in the great waters.

—The Granite State, Capt. Kerr, is the regular packet for Portsmouth to-day, leaving at 4 P. M. This fine steamer is adding to her popularity every trip, but this is to be expected under the administration of Com. Kerr. Passengers and shippers will remember that she leaves promptly on time.

—Says the Cincinnati Enquirer: The workmen engaged in excavating for the shore pier of the Newport bridge, on this side, partially uncovered, thirty feet below the surface, the remains of a steamboat hull, supposed to be that of the Moselle, which was destroyed by the explosion of her boilers over thirty years ago with awful loss of life. The river bank at that place is made ground.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ CONSUMPTION.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption.

Dr. SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC for the cure of Dyspepsia and all the Debilitated Conditions of the Stomach.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, for Diseases of the Liver or to act as a Gentle Purgative.

All of these three Medicines are often required in curing Consumption, though the Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many desperate cases. The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrade Pills assist in regulating the Stomach and Liver, and help the Pulmonic Syrup to digest and search through the blood vessels, by which means a cure is soon effected.

These Medicines are conscientiously offered to the Public as the only safe, certain and reliable remedy for Pulmonary Consumption, and for all those morbid conditions of the body which lead to that fatal disease. Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are often forerunners of Consumption, and when they manifest themselves they require the most prompt attention.

The Pulmonic Syrup is a medicine which has had a long probation before the public. Its value has been proved by the thousand cures it has made through a period of more than thirty-five years, in all of which time its reputation has increased, and the most obstinate skepticism can no longer doubt that it is a remedy which may be used with confidence in all cases which admit of a cure.

If the patient will perseveringly follow the directions which accompany each bottle, he will certainly be cured, if his lungs are not too much wasted to make a cure possible. Even in cases supposed to be incurable, when friends and physicians have despaired, the use of this Medicine has saved the life of the patient and restored him to perfect health.

Dr. Schenck does not say that all cases of Pulmonary Consumption are within the reach of medicine, but he emphatically asserts that often when patients have the most alarming symptoms, such as a violent cough, creeping chills, night sweats, general debility, even to such a degree that they are obliged to lie in bed, and when they are given up by their physician, they may still be cured. No medical treatment can create new lungs, but when the lungs are very sadly diseased and to some extent destroyed, a cure may be effected by Dr. Schenck's medicine.

Also, in Scrofulous Diseases, these medicines are equally efficient. Dr. Schenck has photographs of a number of persons who have been nearly covered with running sores and now all healed up. This shows its purifying properties, which must be able to heal cavities in the lungs.

In the treatment of Consumption it is of the utmost importance to give vigor and a healthy tone to the system. Hence it is necessary to strengthen the appetite of the patient and improve the digestion. Proper nourishment is required together with such means as will make the food easily digestible. The articles most suitable for the diet of Consumptive patients are designated in Dr. Schenck's Almanacs, which are distributed gratuitously. In general, the most highly nutritous articles are to be preferred, but the digestive organs must be strengthened in order to make either food or medicine serviceable. This requirement is met by the Seaweed Tonic, and for this purpose it was designated.

When the digestive powers are put in good order, the food has its proper effect; the system of the patient is invigorated and the lungs begin to exercise their functions in a normal and healthy manner. Then the healing powers of Pulmonic Syrup will effect the cure.

Pulmonary Consumption is almost always complicated with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are intended to remove obstructions from the Liver and restore its healthy action. They have all the efficacy which is ascribed to calomel or "blue mass," and are warranted not to contain a particle of any mineral poison. These Pills cure the most obstinate costiveness, sick headache, piles, billious affections, and all other diseases which arise from a torpid or obstructed condition of the Liver. One box of these pills will prove the efficacy of the medicine.

In Consumption the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are invaluable auxiliary medicines. They relieve the sufferings of the patient and assist the Pulmonic Syrup in effecting a cure. They have been found useful in advanced stages of Consumption, where the lungs are almost entirely destroyed and all symptoms according to the judgment of the physician indicated a speedy death. The lives of patients who were actually in a dying condition have been preserved for months by the use of Schenck's three great remedies.

Dr. Schenck's Almanac contains a full treatise on the various forms of disease, his mode of treatment and general directions how to use his medicine can be had gratis, or sent by mail by addressing his Principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

Summer Opening.—J. H. Warner, 55 Fourth avenue, corner of Market street, will open an assortment of Hats and Bonnets in his retail department, Saturday, May 28.

Mary Nickel paid a visit to Elizabeth Shower yesterday in East Birmingham; they met as friends and parted as enemies. It was all about a dress. Justice Conrad held Mary to bail for trial for disorderly conduct.

Jacob Thicken was allowed to pay the costs in a disorderly conduct case before Justice Conrad yesterday for getting on a rampage in the saloon of Christopher Sendorf in East Birmingham.

Clubbed.—Philip John says he was knocked down with a club on Mount Washington, Wednesday night, and kicked—all by William Dietrich. Justice Heisel has been called in to settle the case.

An Alarm.—About eleven o'clock yesterday morning there was an alarm of fire from box 45, corner of Logan and Franklin streets, which was responded to by the fire department promptly. The cause of the alarm was a chimney on fire in the vicinity.

Christopher Koehler and his landlady, Mrs Vollman, residing in the Third ward, Allegheny, had a quarrel yesterday in regard to the rent, which resulted in Mrs. V.'s appearance before Alderman Bolster for disorderly conduct. The case was amicably arranged.

Surety.—Justice Conrad was called on yesterday to settle a case wherein it appeared that Charley Craig had threatened to damage Christopher Sendorf, all of which occurred in a saloon in Allentown borough. The magistrate settled it by assessing the costs on Charley.

What's in a Name.—Yesterday Fred. Chettel was before Justice Conrad, of Lower St. Clair township, for acting in a disorderly manner before John Slonominski. The man with the unabridged name was compelled to pay the costs of the suit. He failed to make out a case.

One Dollar.—Justice Heisel yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of John Kaiser, charged with obtaining one dollar from Henry Schaffer by falsely representing that he was a drover, the owner of a lot of cattle about seven miles from the city. The deponent went, but could not see the cattle when he got there, neither was his money in sight.

The Iron Box deposited in the corner stone of the German Masonic Hall of Allegheny, laid yesterday was very peculiar in its character being made of enameled iron and bearing the inscription in enameled letters which never can fade. It was the gift of Mr. Hartje and manufactured at the enameling foundry of which he is one of the proprietors. The wreaths and festoon work in green were also worthy especial notice having been made under the direction of Secretary Eggers by the ladies of Allegheny.

Detained.—Royal La Touch, recently from Harrisburg, accompanied by a lady and a little child, was arrested at the Union Depot yesterday morning, about half-past one o'clock, on a charge of larceny. It appears that the woman was a dressmaker and had been entrusted with a silk dress to repair by a lady in Harrisburg, which she neglected to return. An officer was expected to arrive from Harrisburg for the prisoners at ten o'clock last evening.

—The officers came this morning at one o'clock. They will go back with their prisoners to-day.

Turners' National Convention.

Next Monday the National Convention of German Turners will assemble in this city in Turner Hall. The Conventions are held every two years and attract representatives from every State in the Union. They partake of a political character, and this one will consider matters pertaining to this business of interest to all who take any part in the politics of the country. The revision of the platform, which is of the most radical character, will be the main subject for consideration. Among the delegates will be Hon. Edward Rumwell, Secretary of State of Illinois. Preparations upon an extensive scale have been made for the entertainment of the visitors, who will have no reason to complain of the hospitality of Pittsburgh Germans.

The Fenians.

The warriors hereabouts who rejoice in the "Wearing of the Green" manifested slight activity yesterday, but the enthusiasm is evidently declining. A squad numbering about thirty left in the early morning train, under command of Head Centre Donnelly for "the front." There was considerable talk of others to go, but at last accounts they were still at home. It is said that the leaders of the movement in the city are preparing for a grand mass meeting to be held Saturday evening, probably in Lafayette Hall, for the purpose of infusing new life and inspiration into the cause. It would bear considerable infusing of a practical kind. All was comparatively quiet last night.

Templars Hall Dedication.

Last night a new Templars Hall was dedicated in Allegheny. It is located in the building adjoining Leggate's Auction House, Federal street. The hall is in the third story, and presents a very neat, cosy and attractive interior. The floor has been handsomely carpeted, the woodwork grained, brilliant chandeliers suspended from the ceiling, and an entire new set of furniture, for officers and members, procured. Under the gas light it looks as pleasant as any hall in the city, and reflects credit upon the taste as well as the generosity of the Templars. It is to be used exclusively by temperance societies, and is provided with all the paraphernalia of the different orders. In the rear are two anterooms furnished in keeping with the main apartment. Altogether the Templars should be satisfied with their new quarters.

The dedicatory exercises were conducted in accordance with the regular form and attracted a large audience of ladies and gentlemen interested in the temperance cause.

Amusements.

THE OPERA HOUSE was thronged last night with one of the largest and most brilliant audiences of the season. It was the occasion of the presentation of Norma, one of the most pleasing and charming of operas. Placed on the stage with fine scenic appointments and interpreted by the very superior artists of the Richings English Opera Company, the beautiful composition was produced in unusually fine style. In pleasant competition for public favor Mrs. Bernard as "Norma," and Miss Emma Howsen as "Adalgisa," appeared, and their vocalizations charmed and entranced the audience. The chorus was ably conducted, and altogether the company appeared to very decided advantage.

This Friday evening on the occasion of the farewell benefit of Mrs. Caroline Richings Bernard, will be presented for the first time in this city the English translation of Meyerbeer's grand historical opera of "The Hugenots," with a strong cast. To-morrow a Matinee will be held, and in the evening the season will close with the delightful opera of "Maritana."

THE PAREPA-ROSA and Caroline Richings-Bernard Opera companies have just effected a consolidation. Hereafter there will be but one English Opera troupe in the country, headed by Mrs. Bernard, as Parepa-Rosa proposes going to Europe. Lovers of music will be glad that the consolidation has been effected, as but little encouragement could be afforded either company of true artists when brought into competition with each other for public favor.

Rev. A. G. Wallace was appointed second or assistant clerk.

The Moderator then stated that the first business in order was the election of a Moderator for the ensuing year.

ELECTION OF MODERATOR.

On motion it was resolved to go into an election, and the Moderator announced that the Assembly was ready to receive nominations.

Rev. T. S. Kendall, of Oregon, Rev. James Brown, of Keokuk, Iowa, and Rev. William Bruce, D. D., of Baltimore, were placed in nomination.

Dr. Bruce declined the honor and requested the members not to vote for him.

A vote was then taken, which resulted in the election of Rev. Mr. Kendall.

Dr. Brown announced the result and returned his thanks to the Assembly for having selected him at the previous meeting to preside over their deliberations, after which he introduced the Moderator elect.

REV. T. S. KENDALL.

Mr. Kendall, on taking the chair, said: Brethren of this Assembly, it would be unjust to my feelings not to express to you my appreciation of your kindness in placing me in this position. This is the highest court of our Church, and to be called upon to preside over its deliberations is an honor of which more pretentious and more able men than myself might well be proud. I feel, however, in accepting the position thus kindly tendered, that I am assuming a responsibility I am scarcely competent to bear without your aid and co-operation. My position in life has been unfavorable for becoming acquainted and familiar with the rules which govern bodies of this character. At an early age in life, and shortly after I entered into the ministry, I was called to the frontiers of the southwest, where evil prevailed to a great extent and raged in open conflict with truth and all that was good, and from there I was called to the extreme western frontier, 'midst the savages, so that I have had but little opportunity for fitting myself for the position you have placed me in. I will, with your aid, however, discharge the duties of my office to the best of my ability. He then urged upon the members the propriety of conducting the proceedings in harmony, after which he closed his remarks.

HOURS OF MEETING.

Dr. Brown moved that the Assembly now proceed to arrange the hours of meeting and adjourning. Adopted.

Dr. Brown moved that the Assembly hold two sessions each day, as follows: From 9 o'clock to 12 M., and from 2 to 5 P. M. After some discussion, the motion was adopted.

A motion was made to adjourn, but, at the request of A. G. Wallace, it was withdrawn, in order that he might read the credentials of Rev. Thomas McPherson, delegate from the Synod of the Canada Presbyterian Church.

The credentials were read and accepted.

COMMITTEE ON RULES, ETC.

Dr. Brown stated that the Committee on Rules and Regulations had submitted a report, and that Rule 18 in said report, which referred to the appointment of committees, contemplated some change in the committees, and he moved that it be adopted for the government of the Assembly in that matter, in order that the Moderator might have time to appoint the committees.

The motion was adopted.

Rev. Dr. Beveridge thought that it would be necessary to proceed further with the report, as Rule 19 had immediate connection with the one just adopted, and the Moderator could not proceed to appoint committees until it or some other guide had been adopted, as it defined the number of men of which each committee should consist. He, therefore, moved that it be adopted.

A motion was made to amend and adopt all the rules between 19 and 29, inclusive.

Pending the motion, the question was raised as to what proportion of elders should be on the several committees, and considerable discussion ensued.

It was finally resolved that the matter be left to the discretion of the Moderator.

A motion was then made to lay the matter under consideration on the table.

Rev. Mr. Smith moved to adjourn. Lost.

The question then recurring on the motion to lay on the table, it was adopted.

The motion to adjourn was then renewed and carried, after which the Assembly was dismissed with prayer by Rev. Dr. Beveridge.

INVITATION TO DINNER.

Rev. Dr. Brown announced that dinner had been prepared in Mozart Hall for all who desired to avail themselves of the invitation, and requested that all who contemplated dining with the committee would meet in the church at ten minutes past twelve o'clock, from whence they would be conducted to the hall, which was within one minute's walk.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Assembly convened at two o'clock and was opened with prayer by Rev Dr. Willis, President of Knox College.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Moderator stated that he had nominated the Standing Committees for the ensuing year and would submit them to the Assembly for approval.

Following are the Committees:

Bills and Overtures—James Brown, D. D., Joseph H. Pressly, James Thompson, A. B. Coleman, Thomas Sweeny, Wm. Wilkin, and Samuel Lee.

Judicial Committee—John Scott, A. G. Wallace, D. D., Thos. Brown, James Greer, Hon. J. H. Downing, David Shaw, and Andrew Beveridge.

Foreign Missions.—David Paul, R. H. Pollock, N. K. Crome, S. T. Larimer, and J. S. Dale.

Devotional Exercises.—J. D. Turner, J. S. Purdy, William Witherspoon, N. Ballantine.

Revision.—W. A. Mehard, J. C. Herron, J. L. Whitla, Isaac McFarland, David Stinson.

The nominations were confirmed as read.

The Moderator announced that the Assembly was now ready to receive papers which required reference to committees.

The credentials of Rev. Mr. McPherson, delegate from the Synod of the Canada Presbyterian Church was taken up and referred to the committee on correspondence.

The petitions of the Trustees of the San Francisco U. P. Church asking assistance in the erection of church building was read by the clerk. Referred to the committee on church extension in conjunction with the committee on finances.

A REQUEST DENIED.

Rev. J. M. Anderson, Moderator of the Associate Synod, asked that the members of that body be allowed to retire until three o'clock, as they had some important business to transact.

Rev. Mr. Blair objected to the granting of the privilege. It would be breaking in upon the business and time of the Assembly, and was equal to an adjournment.

Several other members made the same objection to granting the request.

Mr. Blair again gained the floor and stated that as there was a majority of the members of the Assembly present who were not members of the Associate Synod, it was simply asking them to adjourn. [Laughter.]

A vote was then taken, when the request was denied, the vote standing 61 yeas and 80 nays.

CORRESPONDING MEMBERS.

Rev. Dr. Willis, President of Knox College, and a member of the Canada Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Dr. Pressly, of the Mississippi Synod, were introduced to the Assembly and invited to seats as corresponding members.

A reconsideration of the vote in relation to the request of the Associate Synod was moved and the request again denied by a decided vote.

Reports from Presbyteries were then taken up, and a number presented which were referred to the appropriate Committees.

Rev. Mr. Henderson then asked the members of the Associate Synod who were not members of the General Assembly to retire, and if a quorum was present to organize. This was necessitated by the refusal to allow the others to withdraw.

REPORTS FROM THE BOARDS.

Reports from the Boards being in order,

The Rev. Wm. J. Reid presented the report of the Board of Home Missions. [Published in full in yesterday's GAZETTE.]

The report was received and referred to the Committee on Home Missions.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Dales then presented the report of the Board of Foreign Missions.

The paper refers at first to the fact that Mr. John Alexander was unable to meet with them during the year; that Rev. J. M. Hutchison had resigned, and Mr. Samuel C. Huey elected to fill the vacancy; the terms of Rev. W. C. Johnson and Messrs. Wm. Getty and Thomas Stinson expired at the last meeting.

The Association began with an appropriation of $70,000, $1,997 55 of which was in the treasury. During the year $53,865 14 were received from all sources, an increase of $3,000 over the former years. The expenditures were $53,141 23, leaving a balance in the treasury of $723 91. During the year $3,847 86 were realized from bequests and legacies, indicating a disposition on the part of the people to remember the work in making their wills.

Of the changes in the missionary toilers the report speaks of the death of Miss Sarah Hart, Preceptress of the girls' school, Cairo, Egypt, on the 28th of June. Rev. Ebenezer Currien, missionary in Egypt, died October 18th. The report speaks in the most eulogistic manner of the character and works of these faithful laborers.

THE CHANGES.

Among the changes noted were the resignations of Rev. B. B. Pinkerton and Rev. Mr. McKelvey. New recruits had, however, been received, which filled up the force and enabled the Board to carry on the work without flagging. Of these were Miss Martha J. McKown, who returned to Egypt; Miss Eliza F. Wharton, of St. Clairsville, Ohio, who entered the same field; Miss Mary E. Welsh, of Martinsburg, Ohio, and Miss Eliza Calhoun, of Pennsylvania, were sent to India. On the 30th of October these four Christian ladies sailed from New York for the distant missions.

The report then speaks of the various missions, reviewing them at length in the order of their organization, as follows: 1st, Trinidad; 2d, Syria; 3d, India; 4th, Egypt, including the stations of Alexandria, Cairo, The Fayoum, and Osiot.

Following came a general review of the work in which the press, book department, contributions of the natives, and theological training were considered. The medical department was also reviewed at some length. The Board also stated they had no report from China, and were unable to state what Mr. Nevins' intentions were for the future. The same was also true of Abyssinia, the missionary having presented no report. In relation to Italy, the Board gave an account of the labors of the Rev. W. G. Moorhead, and stated that, although he had been an efficient laborer, the field was yet "white for the harvest."

WHAT IS NEEDED.

The wants for the ensuing year are enumerated as

1st. New missionaries for Syria, India and Egypt.

2d. Appropriations for the current expenses of the ensuing year, as follows: Syria, $1,900; India, $17,600; Egypt, $21,606; total, $41,106 in gold or $51,375 in currency at 25 per cent. per annum. For new missionaries, in case all the appointments are continued, $9,550 in gold or $11,937 in currency, making a total of $50,650 in gold or $63,312 in currency.

3d. Contingencies. During the last year a famine prevailed in India. Should that occur again, the sum for contingencies would have to be largely increased.

4th. Prayer and increase of missionary intelligence.

The Board in conclusion recommended, First, that the churches be urged to pray more for the success of the work. Second, that if suitable persons can be secured, missionaries be sent, one to Syria, two to India, and one to Egypt. Third, that the constitution for an Association be first approved by the Assembly, and then adopted as a guide for the Association. Fourth, that all efforts to raise funds for the Board be under their own supervision, and not so loosely as heretofore. Fifth, that all the churches be requested to have stated seasons of conference and prayer for the cause, and that greater efforts be made to disseminate missionary intelligence. Sixth, that the vacancies occurring at this session of the Assembly in the Board, be immediately filled.

Accompanying the report was the following

RECAPITULATION.

The whole number of missions under the care of the church and regularly receiving contributions from our church is—5; stations 19; viz: India 3; Syria 6; Egypt 10. Of the missionaries and assistants in active service; males, 13; females, 13; natives, 63—total 89. Of these 10 are in Syria, 33 in India, and 46 in Egypt.

VOTE ON OVERTURES.

The Moderator announced as the committee to count the vote on overtures the Revs. Messrs. John Galley, John Anderson and John C. Hays. The appointments were confirmed.

The reports of the Board of Freedmen's Mission and Education, were referred to appropriate committees, without reading.

The Treasurer's reports from the Home and Foreign and Freedmen's Missions were also presented and referred.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Reports of Committees from the last Assembly, were called for.

Rev. Dr. Cooper, Stated Clerk, read the report of the Committee on Revision of the Book of Psalms,—a very lengthy document—which was put on the calendar.

The chairman of the Committee on Devotional Exercises presented a report recommending that the morning session from 9 to 9½ o'clock, be spent in praise and prayer.

The recommendation was adopted.

The report of the Committee on Presbyterian Union was called for, but none presented—the members of the Committee being absent.

Several papers in reference to Foreign Missions were referred to the Committee.

The hour of five having arrived, business was suspended and the Assembly adjourned until this morning at nine o'clock, Rev. Mr. Armstrong closing with prayer and benediction.

HERE AND THERE.

Rev. Thomas S. Kendall, of whom we gave a personal sketch yesterday, was chosen Moderator by a very complimentary vote. It may not be uninteresting further to mention that he was born in Green county, Ohio, and settled in Tennessee. In 1834 he was licensed to preach and four years afterward was sent to South Carolina to explain the position of the Church in regard to Slavery. His experiences there have been noted. Returning to Tennessee he missionated in the Church. About the year 1847, he traveled overland to Oregon, and has not seen the "East" since, until he came to the Assembly. In reaching here he traveled three days in the wilds intervening between his home in the Valley of Wilamet, Oregon, and San Francisco, and then came the remainder of his journey by rail. He presides with dignity and firmness over the Assembly, and justifies the confidence reposed in him.

Every effort is being made for the comfort and enjoyment of the visitors who are hearty in their praise of the generous hospitality which they have everywhere met. Dinner will be served each day in the church, so that all may avoid the loss of time and the inconvenience attendant upon seeking their stopping places in the middle of the day. This feature of the arrangements is universally admired, not alone by the visitors.

Yesterday the street in front of the church was covered with a thick layer of tanbark which deadens the noise made by passing teams. Arrangements have also been made for decorating the church each day with fresh flowers. In short, nothing seems to have been unthought of, which would add to the pleasure and full enjoyment of the gathering, and make it one memorable for harmony and good cheer.

Reception of General Meade.

Last evening a meeting of the Western Division Pennsylvania Reserve Association was held at the office of Messrs. Swearingen and McCandless Fourth avenue, to make arrangements for the reception of General Meade on Decoration day.

Mr. J. K. Barbou presided with Mr. Willis Preston as Secretary.

After some consideration a Committee of one hundred gentlemen comprising some of our most prominent citizens was appointed to meet the distinguished visitor, somewhere on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad outside the city—probably at Greensburg.

It is not certain yet what time he will arrive. The Secretary of the Association, however, is in correspondence with him and the time will be hereafter announced.

MASONIC.

Interesting Ceremonies—Laying of the Corner Stone of the First German Masonic Hall in the United States.

Yesterday was laid at the corner of Washington street and Madison avenue in Allegheny city, the corner-stone of the first German Masonic Hall in the United States. As we have previously stated the hall is to be erected by the members of Jefferson Lodge, No. 288, and other contributors, and, while recognized as a Masonic institution, it will be made conserve the best interests of the local society of the neighborhood where it finds place. The plan of the hall is very fine and we can safely promise that the building will be one of the greatest architectural adornments of our sister city. With such enterprising and liberal minded citizens as Mr. Augustus Hartje, as chairman, and Mr. H. Eggar, as secretary of the Building Committee, we have full guarantee that the edifice will be a thing of pride and importance to Allegheny. Yesterday agreeably to programme the corner-stone was laid according to the imposing rites and ceremonies of the Masonic Order.

At a little after ten o'clock in the morning the various Lodges of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, already assembled at Masonic Hall on Fifth avenue, formed in procession and took up the line of march. The Allegheny Division, headed by the Great Western Band and under charge of Dr. F. Hardtmeyer, took the advance. This division comprised Lodges Nos. 223, 318, 269, 288 and 374.

The Pittsburgh Division, under charge of Captain C. W. Batchelor, and headed by Toerge's band, followed. This division comprised Lodges Nos. 45, 219, 231, 253 and 321 of East Liberty. Members of numerous other lodges, from surrounding districts, participated, but they took places in the ranks of the lodges already named. All wore appropriate badges and regalia. The route traversed was as follows: Along Fifth avenue, Market and Sixth streets to the suspension bridge, up Federal street to Ohio, along Ohio to West Park, thence to the North and East Park, thence to Ohio street, along Ohio to Madison avenue, to the corner of Washington, where the ceremony was to take place.

The Grand Officers of the Order went from the Union Depot to Allegheny in carriages, and joining the procession, marched at the head to the place of the ceremony.

The foundation of the Hall is completed, and upon this a temporary floor was constructed, where the ceremonies were conducted. At the northeast corner, the portion selected for the stone, we observed the following arrangements: The stone was suspended from a derrick by means of ropes, and beneath was the receptacle for the various articles to be deposited. Fronting on the avenue was a beautiful arch bedecked with evergreen, suspended from which was the emblematic ring enclosing the square and compass.

Upon the arrival of the procession at the side of the projected temple, the Grand Lodge officers took up their positions under the railing which enclosed a space resembling in all its arrangements the interior of a Masonic Lodge. The following Grand Lodge officers were in attendance:

R. W. G. M., R. A. Lamberton; R. W. D. G. M., A. M. Pollock; R. W. S. G. W., Robt. Clark; R. W. J. G. W., Chas. H. Kingston; R. W. G. Treasurer, W. Noble; R. W. G. Secretary, R. H. Thomas; R. W. G. Chaplain, Rev. J. J. McIlyar; S. G. Deacon, F. F. Smith; J. G. Deacon, A. V. Coale; G. Stewards, George Glass and William Eichbaum; G. Marshal, J. Lantenslayer; G. Sword Bearer, B. R. Harbours; G. Pursuivant, C. F. Wells; G. Tyler, M. W. Caning.

The Grand Lodge officers having taken their respective stations, R. W. Grand Master Lamberton opened the ceremonies in due Masonic form. The R. W. Grand Chaplain, Rev. J. J. McIlyar, made the opening prayer in these words:

"We come before Thee, Thou Great and Eternal God and Father, maker of worlds and ruler of men, to offer to Thee our adoration and praise, our thanksgiving. We pray Thee to bless the work now begun, with the corn of strength, the wine of refreshment, and the oil of joy. We implore Thee to bless the great brotherhood of Free Masonry here, and everywhere, and give to it unity, harmony, and prosperity. We ask Thee of Thy mercy to preserve and protect us, and have compassion for those who suffer, and be the God of the widow and fatherless of our Brethren. Be pleased to teach us our work, that we may ever revere Thy holy name, and obey Thy divine laws, so that in all our labors we may have respect for those in authority over us, as they and we are accountable to Thee, the only wise God, blessed forever. Look down from heaven, Thy dwelling place, O Thou who created the earth and sea, the sun and moon, and stars, and pour out upon this fraternity of men like blessings which aforetime Thou didst upon our father, O Thou omniscient, omnipotent and omnipresent God hear us, do with us and grant us Thy salvation. And, when we shall have ended our labors on earth, may Thou, O Father of light and love, who art plenteous in mercy, guide us up to Thy throne, that we may, with those, who, in white raiment and crowns of glory, with harps in their hands, sing the songs of joy and deliverence, and redemption throughout the endless ages of eternity. Amen."

The choir, under the leadership of Professor Slack, rendered in an impressive manner the following:

MASONIC ODE.

In every clime, from age to age
Masons performed their mystic rite,
Craftsmen, scholar, poet, sage,
Met and beheld Masonic light.

Then ask of God his choice blessing,
That Mason's work may perfect be,
And Masonry, each heart possessing,
The craft may dwell in unity.

By command of the R. W. Grand Master, the Grand Marshal proclaimed in a loud voice, "Silence—silence—silence!"

The R. W. Deputy Grand Master, A. M. Pollock, then addressed the Grand Master as follows:

Right Worshipful Sir: "The German Masonic Hall Association of Allegheny, having unanimously resolved to build on this site a Masonic Hall, the members and brethren are now here assembled for the purpose of witnessing the impressive ceremony of laying the Corner-Stone of the Edifice. The necessary arrangements have been made by the Committee of the Association intrusted with their preparation, and I have now the pleasure to present to you R. W. M., the Chairman of that Committee.

The Chairman of the Building Committee, Mr. Augustus Hartje, responded in the following address:

"Right Worshipful Sir: The Committee charged with the duty of preparing the corner-stone, and making the arrangements for its being laid, have completed their labors. It is now ready, Right Worshipful Sir, to be made the Foundation Stone of this new Temple."

The R. W. Grand Chaplain here pronounced the INVOCATION.

Supreme Architect of Heaven and earth, we render Thee our thanksgiving and praise for the Masonic Order, its establishment and its prosperity, and as members of which we are now assembled to praise Thee and magnify Thy holy name. Teach us, we pray Thee, to feel and know our dependence on Thee always, that by our works, begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may give Thee glory, for Thou art Jehovah, our Father and our God. And O, as Thou didst aforetime appear unto Thy servant Moses in a flame of fire, out of the midst of a bush, enkindle, we beseech Thee, in our hearts a flame of true devotion and reference for Thee, brotherly kindness to each other, and of charity to all mankind. And now to Thee King Eternal, the only wise God, be both honor and glory from everlasting to everlasting. Amen.

Response by the Brethren, "Amen, so mote it be, Amen."

The R. W. Grand Master directs the R. W. Grand Treasurer to place the articles, coins and other valuable gifts in the corner-stone. The R. W. Grand Master then directed the R. W. Grand Secretary to read a list of the articles so deposited, which he proceeded to do, as follows:

ARTICLES DEPOSITED.

Name of the Association; date of its charter; date of the day of ceremonies; names of the officers of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania; date of the charter Jefferson Lodge, No. 228; names of charter members of same; names of its officers; names of its Past Masters; names of Board of Directors of the German Masonic Hall Association; names of stockholders; name of architect; names of Building Committee; names of the contractors; names of invited Lodges; a copy of the Holy Bible; the Ahimon Rezon; constitution and by-laws; a full set of the coin of 1870, coins of 1611 and 1763; postal currency of its first issue; names of orators of the day, viz: Rev. Charles Schilling and John H. Bailey, Esq.; a copy of each of the newspapers of Pittsburgh and Allegheny; names of singing choirs and leaders of the same; names of Building Committee, viz: A. Hartje, President; H. Eggers, Secretary; Wm. Bader, Ed. Oetling, J. C. Lappe; copies of the odes sung during the ceremonies and the music played and sung; by-laws of Lodge 45, A. Y. M., a copy of Manning's Masonic Register for the "State of Pennsylvania for the year 1870.

The choir sang an anthem, after which the R. W. Grand Master addressed the R. W. Deputy Grand Master—

R. W. Deputy Grand Master: It is my will and pleasure that the corner stone of the new Masonic Temple be now laid. You will announce the same to the R. W. Senior Grand Warden, that he may announce it to the R. W. Junior Grand Warden, that he may proclaim it to the Brethren, that all present may govern themselves accordingly.

The box in which the articles were deposited was made of enameled iron, and the top had the following inscription, in German:

"Corner Stone Laying of the First German Free Masons' Hall, of the German Free Mason Society, through Jefferson Lodge No. 288, of Allegheny city, 26th of June, 1870, and A. L. 5870."

At the conclusion of the ceremonies John H. Bailey, Esq., one of the orators of the occasion, made a very creditable oration. He began by referring to the successful laying of the corner-stone, or perfect ashlar, the symbol of the perfected Mason; that the work was now begun, and here was to be erected a temple to be devoted to the uses of the Masonic Order, and though not consecrated to the worship, was dedicated to the glory of God; that its threshhold could not be passed by any one who did not recognize Him as the Almighty Creator. In this temple were to be enshrined the Three Great Lights and to be celebrated solemn ceremonies, consecrated by all that is symbolized by the mystic letter "G."

He then alluded to the lessons of rectitude, self-restraint and charity there to be taught and of the benefits conferred by the order upon the brother and his family. He contrasted the ties of the fraternity with the friendship of the world—that the one was limited and restricted, while the other was world-wide—the one could be blighted by a breath, while the other was based upon a charity that the world knows nothing of.

He referred to the ministrations of masonry and its ameliorating influences in war as well as in peace—and mentioned instances in which it has saved suffering and life during the war of the rebellion. He showed that this was perfectly consistent with the obligations of patriotism and quoted the landmarks of the order against treason and conspiracy.

He enforced this position by references to the patriotic labors of Masons, during the American Revolution—by the martyrdom of Warren—the generosity of Lafayette, and the services of Washington, and in later times of Clinton, Jackson and Clay, all members of the Order.

He deduced from all this the claims of the Order upon the brethren—its hold upon our affections, and its assured perpetuation. He referred to the names of prominent citizens—of the places of our residence—and of those from sacred history, which were selected as the titles of the lodges, as evidence of where the affections of the Order were fixed, and that those adopting them must be worthy citizens.

He concluded by saying that the occasion of their meeting was no mere display, nor idle ceremony, nor unmeaning adherence to usage; but that it was to honor Masonry and to encourage the brethren engaged in erecting this hall, and hoped that the building might be preserved from accident, long remain the home of benevolence and charity, and stand through future years a monument of the fidelity and zeal of the brethren who had built it.

On the conclusion of Mr. Bailey's well prepared and elaborate address, Rev. Mr. Schilling took the stand, and delivered an eloquent and impressive oration in the German language. He alluded to the grandeur of the work consummated in the laying of the corner stone under the beautiful and correct ideas of the antique and honorable order of the Masons. In the hall about to rear its proportions into heavens' own air, free men will meet in sociality and lessen the labors of each other, and extend a helping hand towards the welfare and prosperity of general humanity. Out from this beautiful work, laid with so much pomp and ceremony will arise blessings to society. Though the veil of mystery is thrown over the organization there is none of that which the outside world regard as superstitious and ignorant connected with the brotherhood, but to the contrary, it battles such prejudices, and stands always for the right, for justice, and for humanity. The speaker went on to detail the history of Masonry, and eloquently traced its origin away down in the past, and spoke of the good which the order worked in our own day and time. He was listened to with marked attention, and his speech was regarded by German scholars as one of the most masterly efforts heard hereabouts for years.

Mr. R. A. Schnabel next read in good style a fine original poem from the elegant pen of Rev. Mr. Weitershausen, which was received with much applause. Benediction was now pronounced, and the numerous participants separated with pleasant recollections of the occasion.

PLANING MILL MEN

And Others,

TAKE NOTICE!

The undersigned has letters patent of the United States for the improved construction of weather-boarding, inside lining and of wainscoting for houses. The weather-boarding, by this patent improvement, being more particularly intended for vertical use, and combines great durability and beauty of appearance; and it is so constructed as to entirely avoid the use of joint strips, and to prevent water from entering the joint of the gaping or the showing of the joints by the action of the weather on the timber.

Inside lining and wainscoting by this new method are so constructed as to form perfect panels as cheaply as by the ordinary flooring boards alone; thereby preventing the showing of the joints from any cause, and leaving no refuges for bugs.

He has also purchased the patent right of what is commonly known as the "Moulded Weatherboarding."

He has disposed of the following territorial and shop rights in Allegheny county, for both patents, to wit:

To G. A. Mundorff, the right of the territory south of the river in said county.

To McQuewan & Douglass, the right for the First ward, Pittsburgh.

To Hill, Patterson & Co., shop rights for their mill, Sixth ward, Pittsburgh.

To Alex. McClure, for the borough of McKeesport.

To Parker & Paul, for First, Second, Third and Fourth wards, city of Allegheny.
